

BELLA ALPACAS

FOUNDED BY: JUDY APICELLA

Overview

Judy, Salvatore and Nico created a sanctuary for alpacas who needed a home. They have cared for many alpacas and she uses herbal remedies for their health needs. She was given an alpaca, Solomon, that had severe mange (alpaca eczema). Judy spent a year trying to find the cure and eventually created the perfect mix of essential oils. Solomon was healed within 2 months. She then created a the spray for people with eczema and that mixture had exceptional results. Judy loves helping people and animals by creating herbal mixtures. Judy also advises on diet and teaches yoga so that people can develop a healthy and happy mindset.

Background

Judy Apicella is completing her masters degree in Nutrition at the University of Bridgeport (UB). She is a practicing herbalist and has been for 13 years. Judy created a unique line of herbal remedies that have given many relief from symptoms of Chronic Lyme, Eczema, virus, flu, pain and more. Prior to entering UB, she did a study with over 65 people and six dogs for her herbal Lyme Remedy and the results showed significant reduction or removal of pain, fatigue and help with cognitive function. She went through a rigorous process of getting all of her internal remedies lab tested and licensed. The SEC opened up new doors through which she has received two grants – 1) for the Lyme formula which entails High Performance Liquid Chromatography analysis and 2) to aid in her product business which includes internal remedies for hormonal balance and immune support and external remedies for pain and eczema. The SEC also provided her with mentors who helped her with her product business. Her facial care and make-up line are from ancient traditional medicine combined with current research. She is the author of WITCH JUDY available on Amazon. She homesteads at her Alpaca Sanctuary with her family where they have rescued and cared for alpacas who needed a home.
