

The Gamma Chapter of Sigma Phi Alpha, Fones School of Dental Hygiene, University of Bridgeport will sponsor its Twenty Eighth Annual Dental Hygiene Board Review.

The full course will provide participants with a comprehensive review of dental hygiene subjects. The faculty for these sessions are educators of outstanding reputation and expertise.

Participants have the option to attend all 3 days or a portion of the 3 days. All participants will receive a comprehensive information packet. Those attending full day and half-day morning sessions can enjoy a light breakfast and beverages. Additionally, those attending full day sessions will receive a light lunch and afternoon beverages and snacks.

The purpose of this review course is to assist students preparing for the National Board Dental Hygiene Examination and provide registered dental hygienists a comprehensive refresher.

Continuing education verification is provided for participants who fully attend courses.

For every 14 participants in a group, 1 additional participant attends free (requires registration as a group for full 3 day attendance)

For additional information please call (203) 576-4138 or email the Fones School of Dental Hygiene administrative assistant Addie Gant at agant@bridgeport.edu, please put "Board Review Course Question" in the subject line.
