

COURSE SYLLABUS

Please read the following course syllabus carefully, especially the course dates, times and location. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to communicate with the IDEAL Program office, your academic advisor, or the instructor.

The IDEAL degree-completion program is designed with the adult learner in mind. Adult learners approach learning with specific goals, want to be able to directly apply new learning to their work and personal lives, and tend to learn best when the coursework is problem-centered so that they are actively engaged in the learning process. In addition, adults bring rich and varied experience to the classroom, which becomes a valuable learning resource for other students.

The IDEAL Program assumes joint responsibility in the learning process. The activities and assignments in the courses build on the shared experience of all learners in each class. This is why each student's preparation, participation and interaction in class activities and discussions are critical to the success of each course. The accelerated format of each course requires a significant amount your time outside the classroom to prepare for and complete the course assignments. This varies between students and courses; however, students typically spend nine-twelve hours per week on course material.

To participate in the IDEAL Program, it is expected that you will do the following:

1. Attend every class session. Be on time.
2. Obtain the required course materials prior to the first class session.
3. Complete the first assignment prior to the first class session and all subsequent assignments to the best of your ability.
4. Participate in the class discussions and demonstrate respect and consideration to the instructor and other students when they express themselves in discussion.

If you cannot perform these four expectations, it is recommended that you drop the course. We look forward to your academic success in each course and the ultimate completion of your degree.

If a student is not already affiliated with an agency, the following Provider Directory may be useful in identifying a Practicum Site.

<http://www.caahs.org/publications/documents/06-08PTHPCProviderDir.pdf>

PLEASE NOTE: AS SOON AS YOU ENROLL IN THIS CLASS, YOU SHOULD START

SEARCHING FOR A PLACEMENT. Before the first class meeting, it is recommended that the student identifies more than one site and makes contact with those organizations PRIOR to the course start date. The student is encouraged to select a site that is going to provide the most opportunities for learning about a field of interest. This course provides a connection to the field of Human Services. One hundred hours must be completed during the dates of this course; therefore it is in the student's best interest to secure a site before the first meeting.

The agency site supervisor should have a degree, preferably a master's degree with supervisory experience, or a history of working with individuals in the following areas:

- Rehabilitation
- Counseling
- Social Work
- Allied Health Care
- Psychology
- Business
- Sociology
- Medicine
- Physical Education
- Teaching

- 1) Students must select an agency for their Internship as soon as possible, before the first class.
- 2) The Practicum and Internship Advisor must approve each placement.
- 3) Students must complete 100 hours of intern experience within one semester to receive three (3) credits. Semester Timeframe: 1/13/14 to 4/14/14
- 4) Students submit journal entries each week.
- 5) At the end of the semester, students submit a report and a power point on their field experience. (Directions for the report will be discussed in class.)

First Assignment Prior to the First Class:

*Pre work is due on 1/6/14

Please send me your Internship placement, tell me a bit about the placement, your job description as stated in the contract and have the direct supervisors name and phone number.

Or send me a note via email and attach the signed contract. All contracts are to be presented for signature at the first class. Please have them filed out and signed by the supervisor.

This is worth 15points towards your final grade.

Assignments: Weekly Journals

Journal Entries need to be typed, 12-point font, double-spaced. The entries should be dated. The weekly journal should contain experiences that relate to your work in the social service agency, or a summary journal of your whole week of service and personal reflections pertaining to your experiences.

Email your weekly journal to me, every week, and no later than midnight on Sunday.

You will not get credit if it is late.

The instructor will review and evaluate each weekly journal. Entries that are submitted later than Sunday will not be reviewed and therefore, will receive a zero as a grade. Include your name and provide the word count in the journal. Write a minimum of 500 words.

Journal entries are based on the idea that you write to learn. Writing forces you to be actively engaged with the material you were just learning, to reflect on it and write about the result of that reflection. Your journal reflects your personal thoughts and beliefs—you should feel free to write exactly what you are thinking without fear of being judged. One of the biggest hurdles with journal writing is making the leap from simply summarizing what you learned to reflecting and thinking about how that material applies to you. It is not enough to merely regurgitate information without answering the “so what?” question. Why are you writing this down? Why did this information give you an “ah ha!” moment or why did you find it interesting or useful? Your journal is one place to intentionally make connections between what you know or hope to gain and what you just learned. Your journal is a place to raise questions and it is a place for critical analysis and evaluation. Please check your grammar and spelling.

In your journals, I will be looking for evidence of thought, reflection, and individual thinking about the connections between class material and your lives. We will be looking for careful thinking, rather than superficial or summary writing. Develop an idea, rather than listing numerous unconnected thoughts.

Write regularly! We are not expecting you to write after every day, but that would be ideal. Making specific connections will also make writing easier for you. Don't try to cover everything—pick one issue or topic and expand on it. Write entries that are engaging. Use specifics! Be interesting! Think, reflect, and then start writing. See what flows from your mind to your pen (or computer, as the case may be!).

ACADEMIC POLICIES

Attendance Policy

Classroom attendance is an integral part of the academic experience; therefore, students are expected to attend all class sessions. If an absence is unavoidable, the student, prior to class, should communicate with the instructor. Arrangements should be made at that time for submission of any missed assignments. It is also expected that students arrive on time and not leave until the class is dismissed. Tardiness will result in a reduced grade for the course. If you cannot attend every class session you should consider dropping the course.

IMPORTANT:

- Missing one class session will drop the final grade by one letter grade (for example if a student earns a grade of “B” in the course, the final grade would be a “C”).
- Missing two or more class sessions will be cause for a failing grade.
- Note: For 15-week courses; missing two class sessions will result in a letter grade drop and three or more will cause a failing grade.

Drop Procedures

To drop a course, you must complete and submit a Schedule Change Request Form. The form can be accessed at the IDEAL Course Schedule webpage:

<http://www.bridgeport.edu/academics/continuinged/ideal-academic-degree-programs-and-certificates/ideal-course-schedule/>.

Please print and complete the form and fax the form to the IDEAL Office: 203-576-4537. Prior to dropping a course, the student should contact their IDEAL Academic Advisor to understand the implications to financial aid and/or degree plan progress.

Please review the drop fees and tuition refunds at the Academic Calendar; accessed at the IDEAL Course Schedule webpage (same link above).

Cell Phones

Cell phones must be turned off (or placed on “vibrate”) while in the classroom. A cell phone call is disruptive and disrespectful to the other students in the class.

Academic Dishonesty

The IDEAL program prohibits all forms of academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty is normally defined as, but not limited to, the following two categories:

Cheating – Using inappropriate sources of information in an assignment or on a test. The following are examples of cheating taken from real student experiences:

Case #1: A student is enrolled in an introductory psychology course. He has co-workers who have taken the same course. As the end of the course approaches, he wonders how he will find the time to get the research paper finished, and asks one of his co-workers for help. His co-worker hands him a research paper that he submitted in a similar course. The student makes minor modifications to the paper, and submits it under his own name.

Case #2: A student enrolled in a humanities course is unsure about how to structure an essay. She is doing research on the World Wide Web, and comes across an essay written by a student from another university. Using her computer mouse, she copies and pastes the essay into her word processor. She goes to great lengths to re-word the paper in her own style, but essentially leaves the content and organization the same.

Plagiarism – Intentional as well as unintentional failure to acknowledge sources as well as the use of commercially available so-called “research papers” without full recognition of the source. Presenting as one’s own, the ideas, words, or products of another. The following are examples of plagiarism taken from real student experiences:

Case #3: A student is conducting research for a Civil War research paper. He has reviewed work on the Internet. Finding helpful information, he has summarized his findings without citing his sources. He believes that minor paraphrasing is all that is necessary.

Case #4: A student is writing a paper that requires her to address specific topics and problems in the assigned course textbook. She takes the information directly from the textbook with slight modification, without giving any citation. She thinks that since it is the course textbook, she doesn’t have to use quotations or citations.

Academic dishonesty applies to all courses, assignments or exams completed by students and submitted as their own original work, whether in person or by electronic means. The University does not tolerate cheating in any form. It is a serious breach of conduct with serious consequences. Instructors have the right to determine the appropriate penalty for academic dishonesty in their own courses; generally, however, such acts will result in a failing grade for the assignment and/or the course. The penalty for subsequent acts of academic dishonesty may include expulsion.

More information on how to recognize plagiarism can be found at this site:
http://www.indiana.edu/~istd/plagiarism_test.html

Ethics Statement of Confidentiality

An integral component of an IDEAL course is student and faculty expression of personal experiences for the purpose of facilitating coursework. Students enrolled in the program are expected to honor confidentiality as it pertains to student disclosure. Shared information, comments, or opinions expressed by another student or the faculty member during the course of classroom discussion should never be used in a manner which is intended to humiliate, embarrass, harass, damage, or otherwise injure other students in their personal, public, or business lives. In addition, confidentiality must be upheld by not disclosing any information that would identify any particular individual.

ACADEMIC RESOURCE CENTER

The Academic Resource Center is available for IDEAL students seeking help in their studies. The Center is staffed by writing professionals and peer tutors.
