

LOVE Story

We met at UB through mutual friends in 2012. We started to hang out and Dan asked me to be his girlfriend that summer in Boston. I said YES! While dating, we spent many years working on campus together but we kept our relationship private to remain professional. Dan proposed outside of the Webster Arena in 2014 right after our commencement ceremony. We have overcome a lot throughout the years, including getting through grad school, working different shifts, changing jobs, and managing to have a baby while Resident Director on campus. We have been together for 11 years, and we still have so much to accomplish. For now, we will continue to count our blessings and enjoy the “chaos” of raising two boys, our Sammy boy (dog), and Roxbury (kitten).
