

UNIVERSITY OF BRIDGEPORT

LOVE Story

Kyle Capone applied for Physician Assistant programs in 2021 and as he traveled around, he kept meeting the same woman, Alyssa Pioggia, at all the interviews. At the first day of orientation at UB, they met and finally had the chance to introduce themselves. From that moment, they were “the best of friends.” They attended study groups, went out with friends, watched movies together, and even met each other’s families. Finally, three years later, in June 2024, they went to see a movie, and afterwards, Alyssa seemed very nervous. When Kyle walked her to her car, she asked him if he would be interested in “going out” together. Kyle couldn’t have said yes any faster. From that point on, they have been totally inseparable. “I have UB to thank for introducing me to the love of my life,” says Kyle. “I can never replace that.”
