

UNIVERSITY OF BRIDGEPORT

LOVE Story

The first time Miguel saw Laura at a campus club meeting, he was mesmerized by her beauty, charm and intellect. But as president she was always busy and he never got the chance to meet or talk to her. Then, she invited him to her graduation party and she was surprised, thinking he would not show up. They talked for hours and soon began dating. Two years later they were married in the University of Bridgeport chapel, “the perfect venue for us to get married.”
