

LOVE Story

Peter Randazzo ('79) transferred from Ithaca College and found an artistic home in the University of Bridgeport music department. Karen Weixeldorfer ('73) had graduated from UB with a BA in Theater six years earlier, but in 1979 she was asked to return and direct a show for the Stephen Sondheim Composer festival. Peter auditioned for her, singing "What Are You Doing For The Rest Of Your Life." They decided to spend that life together, working together on shows and teaching music and acting. They have two children, two dogs and two cats.
