

UNIVERSITY OF BRIDGEPORT

LOVE Story

Rich and Emily met during their sophomore year in Oct. 1967 at a “Mixer” in the UB Student Union. Rich asked Emily to dance and she said yes. They danced and talked for a while, and Rich asked if Emily would like to leave and get a drink (she thought he meant a soda). They went outside, and he took a bottle of Old Richards Hard Cider from the trunk of his car. That was the beginning of a beautiful relationship. They were engaged during their senior year, before Richard went on active duty with the New York National Guard. Emily received her bachelor’s degree in Nursing, while Rich’s Mathematics major led him into the world of computers. They recently celebrated their 50th anniversary!
