

UNIVERSITY OF BRIDGEPORT

LOVE Story

When Richard Lorigan first set eyes on Sandra Miller, his heart was pierced by tomatoes! She was wearing a skirt with big red tomatoes on the back pockets and he thought that was “kind of daring.” He was an industrial design major and she was a fashion merchandising major, and both were enrolled in an art class together. They began taking walks at Seaside Park during breaks, returning hours after class had already let out to collect their art supplies. Within a year, Miller was proudly wearing Lorigan’s SIG fraternity pin. They were married on October 10, 1964, and will soon celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary!
