

Student Support Services

Student Support Services (SSS), located in Wahlstrom Library on the second floor across from the Heckman Center, is ready to support your academic journey. SSS can partner with you throughout your time at UB to help you succeed in college and get into a great career.

SSS is designed for students who:

- Are first-generation
- Come from a low-income household
- Have a documented disability

And the best part?

SSS is a federal TRIO grant-funded program, meaning there is no additional cost for eligible UB students!

When you are accepted into SSS, you can take advantage of support services that will help you every step of the way toward earning your degree at UB.

Services include:

- Computer lab and quiet workspaces
- Personal, academic, and financial aid advising
- Tutoring
- Peer mentorship
- Career planning
- Workshops and seminars
- Activities and trips on and off campus
- And more!

At Student Support Services, we will customize your support throughout your time at UB so that you're reaching your goals and striving for new ones.

To learn more about Student Support Services or how to apply, contact us today or visit us in the Office of Student Support Services.

For more information, contact:
203-576-4186
SSS@bridgeport.edu