UNIVERSITY OF BRIDGEPORT SECURITY PROTOCOL PLAN

INTRODUCTION

This Plan has been drafted in accordance with Conn. Gen. Stat. § 10a-156a (formerly P.A. 13-3 Sec. 92) to provide a Security Protocol Plan identifying current University of Bridgeport security policies and procedures - specifically those designed to heighten awareness (by all faculty and staff) regarding potentially at-risk students and other individuals on campus through effective educational strategies.

Every two years, the University of Bridgeport will review the plan, update it as necessary, and file the plan with the Connecticut Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection/Division of Emergency Management and Homeland Security (“DESPP/DEMHS”) by August 1st. In the event that revisions are not needed, the Director of Campus Security of the University of Bridgeport, will submit a signed letter to DESPP-DEMSH stating that the internal review was conducted with (list of names/positions) on (Date) and it has been determined that no revisions to the Security Protocol Plan need to be made at this time.

This plan will address the following topics:

- The identification of the administrative office responsible for security on campus
- A description of authority of security personnel, including their relationship with state and local police authorities
- Procedures for students, employees and other persons to report crimes, emergencies and incidents of sexual harassment occurring on campus
- Policies concerning the institution’s response to such reports, including informing victims of the outcome and disciplinary proceedings
- Policy regarding sexual harassment
- Policy regarding possession, use and sale of alcoholic beverages and controlled substances
- Policy regarding possession and use of weapons on campus
- Policy concerning identification and admission of visitors to residential housing
- Type and frequency of programs to inform residents of guest policies, particularly as to housing security and enforcement procedures.
- Procedure for notifying prospective students and new employees of availability of said document

CAMPUS SECURITY REPORTING OFFICE

The Department of Campus Security reports to the Administrative Office of Facilities Planning and Construction managed by the Chief Operating Officer, who reports directly to the President of the University.

CAMPUS LAW ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY AND INTERAGENCY RELATIONSHIP

Campus Security Officers are required to successfully complete an orientation course with Securitas Security Services, Inc. Each officer completes an 8 hour course required by Conn. Gen. Stat. § . 29-161q for Security Officers. Veteran patrol officers as well as supervisors mentor and provide on the job training for newly hired officers. The Security staff is responsible for investigating any allegations of a wrongful or significant act that occurs on campus. Campus Security follows a developed Investigation Protocol and receives training in the various elements of the investigation, reporting requirements and interview skills. In addition, all officers are responsible for handling safety and access control for the campus.

Campus Security, as University officials on private property, has:

- the authority to address orders of protection in conjunction with local law enforcement
- the right to confiscate stolen property, illegal weapons, and controlled substances
- the authorization to operate emergency notification systems, if needed
• to facilitate first responder calls and investigations
• the authority to request photo identification, question and deny access to unauthorized person/son campus property.

University Security personnel are not public safety officers and do not have the authority to make arrests or to enforce governmental laws, rules, or regulations. Neither the University nor Campus Security has agreements with law enforcement agencies, such as written memoranda of understanding (MOU) for the investigation of alleged criminal offenses. However, the University and/or Campus Security may and frequently do opt to engage in such cooperation or may be compelled to do so by law.

The local police and state authorities work closely with the campus security staff when incidents arise that require joint investigative efforts, resources, crime related reports and exchange of information as deemed necessary.

The University community is strongly encouraged to report in an accurate and timely fashion, any incidents of crime to Campus Security and the local police.

CLERY ACT

The Clery Act requires higher education institutions to provide information about crime on and around their campuses, issue timely warnings of crimes that represent a threat to their communities and to make institutional campus security policies available to the public. Data must be collected, reported in an annual security report, and disseminated to the campus community, potential students and employees, and submitted to the U.S. Department of Education on October 1 each year. The intent of the Clery Act is to provide students, families and employees with accurate, complete and timely information about campus safety so they can make informed decisions.

REPORTING OF CRIMINAL OFFENSES

Campus Security is notified of crimes occurring at non-campus locations through other local law enforcement agencies when those agencies request assistance or when they routinely pass along information that may be of mutual interest. Campus Security works with local police on matters implicating criminal activity in and around the campus, in an effort to help provide additional safety (including tips) for our community.

Crimes must be reported to University Campus Security. If there is a significant safety concern, physical injury or suspicious activities, call 203-576-4911, use the LiveSafe App, or report in person at Norseman Hall (221 University Avenue). Dispatchers are available 24 hours a day to assist you. In response to your request for assistance, Campus Security will take the required action, dispatching an officer to investigate and file an incident report.

Members of the community are strongly encouraged to report these types of incidents accurately and promptly to Campus Security. Campus Security is primarily responsible for crimes and other incidents that occur on campus. Campus Security provides emergency assistance; conducts investigations, documents investigations, and acts as the liaison with all other public safety agencies. Campus Security will also aid victims in reporting a crime to the local police.

Campus Security, in cooperation with local law enforcement agencies, investigates all reported criminal activities. Anyone with information regarding a crime or other situation posing an ongoing threat to the campus community should immediately notify Campus Security.

In addition, you may report a crime to the following departments:

The University of Bridgeport does not recognize any non-campus organizations, but in regard to jurisdiction of off-campus incidents, the University Student Conduct Officer (USCO) and/or the Title IX Coordinator determines whether the University’s Code of Community Standards and/or the University’s Policy on Sexual and Gender-based Interpersonal Violence and Harassment (found in Chapter Five and Six of the Key to UB Student Handbook, respectively) (the “Policies”), shall be applied on a case by case basis.

PROCEDURES

University disciplinary proceedings may be initiated against a student charged with conduct that potentially violates both the criminal law and (one of) the Policies, without regard to the pending civil or criminal litigation in court or criminal arrest and prosecution. Proceedings under the Policies may be carried out prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings off campus at the discretion of the USCO. Determinations made or sanctions imposed under the Policies shall not be subject to change because criminal charges arising out of the same facts giving rise to violation of University rules were dismissed, reduced, or resolved in favor of or against the criminal law defendant. When a student is charged by federal, state, or local authorities with a violation of law, the University will not request or agree to special consideration for that individual because of his/her status as a student. If the alleged offense is also being processed one of the Policies, the University may advise off-campus authorities of the existence of the Code of Community Standards and of how such matters are typically handled within the University community.

The University will attempt to cooperate with law enforcement and other agencies in the enforcement of criminal law on campus and in the conditions imposed by criminal courts for the rehabilitation of student violators (provided that the conditions do not conflict with campus rules or sanctions). Individual students and other members of the University community, acting in their personal capacities, remain free to interact with governmental representatives as they deem appropriate.

SANCTIONS

The following sanctions may be imposed upon groups or organizations:
- Those listed applicable for students.
- Loss of selected rights and privileges for a specified period of time.
- Deactivation. Loss of all privileges, including university recognition, for a specified period of time.

In each case in which a CSHB (Community Standards Hearing Board) determines that a student and/or group or organization has violated the Code, the sanction(s) shall be determined and imposed by the USCO. The USCO is not limited to sanctions recommended by members of the CSHB. Following the CSHB hearing, the USCO shall advise the Responding Party, group and/or organization (and a Reporting Party who believes s/he was the victim of another student’s conduct) in writing of its determination and of the sanction(s) imposed, if any.

AT-RISK STUDENTS AND RECOGNIZING INDIVIDUALS IN DISTRESS

At-risk students may be students who are experiencing academic or personal struggles, thereby subjecting them to higher risk of dropping out. In some cases, they are low academic achievers or students who have difficulty with work completion, class attendance/participation or interpersonal relationships. At-risk students may not participate in school activities and may have minimal connections with peers or staff within the University. They often may have disciplinary and attendance problems that place them at risk for loss of academic credit. They may exhibit impulsive behavior and their peer relationships may be problematic. Family problems, substance abuse issues, exposure to trauma, and financial problems may prevent them from participating successfully in school. As they experience failure and fall behind their peers, school becomes a negative environment that reinforces their struggles.

The University of Bridgeport provides training to administrators and faculty regarding identification of students in distress. The following is an outline of the annual New Faculty Orientation training:
INDICATIONS OF DISTRESS

- Marked changes in behavior
- Appearance of depressive symptoms
- Sadness, apathy, tearfulness, fatigue, hopelessness
- Significant anxiety or nervousness
- Irritability, agitation, aggressiveness, non-stop talking, no sleeping
- Student in perpetual state of crisis
- Bizarre speech or behavior
- Noticeable decline in quality of work, class participation
- Increased and excessive absences
- Writing that demonstrates disconnected or morbid content or comments that rouse concern.*
- Extreme dependency on faculty
- Excessive use of office hours
- Boundary issues
- Marked changes in appearance including decline in hygiene and significant weight loss
- Direct threat to self or others
- Self-Harming Behavior
- Cuts or burns on arms or legs
- Indications toward suicide directly or indirectly (“I won’t be around to take that exam anyway” “I’m not worried anymore”…)
- Signs of intoxication
- Decreased ability to focus, misperception of facts or reality
- Frequent complaints of physical symptoms

FACULTY AND STAFF ROLE

- The 3 R’s: Recognize, Respond, Refer
- Recognize that you may be in a direct position to identify students in distress
- Usually the 1st point of contact with students
- Students may perceive you as support
- Call 203-576-4454/ext. 4454 or counselingservices@bridgeport.edu
- Provide confidential consultation services and/or facilitate referral and scheduling.

CHOOSING YOUR RESPONSE

- Levels of responding
  - Choose not to intervene
  - Work with the student to address the problem
  - Advise or assist the student in seeking additional support;
  - Refer to supervisor/administrator or refer to CARE Team.
  - Complete a Student of Concern Form accessed through the UB Portal under Student Services to initiate a CARE consultation

REASONS TO MAKE A REFERRAL

- Student’s issues go beyond your expertise
  - And/or you job description
  - Boundaries
- When you feel uncomfortable with the situation
  - Stressed or overwhelmed
  - Afraid for yourself or the student
  - Generally upset
- Issue impacts the student’s academics, your teaching, and/or the educational environment
INTERVENTION GUIDELINES

- Safety First
  - Caution when approaching a student: sit or stand, be aware of your distance, angle, and space between
  - Keep office door ajar
  - Have someone else present
  - Document the encounter
  - Speak with supervisor

- Remain Calm and Ask Direct Questions
  - Calm, caring, matter-of-fact approach
  - Ask directly if they are experiencing a problem
  - Reference concrete or overt behaviors
  - Non-verbal communication 80%
  - Do not use judgmental or assumptive remarks

- Seek Help
  - Your personal discomfort is a good sign.

- Do not assume you are being manipulated
  - Only a thorough assessment will help determine if a student is feigning distress for relief from responsibility.

- Avoid Escalation
  - Avoid provoking a student with judgmental, threatening or intimidating remarks.
  - Caution when approaching: sit/stand, distance, angle...avoid surprising them.

VOLUNTARY CONFIDENTIAL CRIME REPORTING

The Campus Security Department partners with the Counseling Department and the Dean of Students’ office to encourage students to report crimes on a voluntary, confidential basis in order to protect the victim and the community that we serve; and to be included in the annual crime statistics report.

If you are the victim of a crime and do not want to pursue action within the University system or the criminal justice system, you may still want to consider making a confidential report. This can be done through the Office of Campus Security, the Dean of Students’ Office or Counseling Services. With such information, the University can keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students, employees and visitors; determine whether there is a pattern of crime with regard to a specific location, method or assailant; and alert the campus community to any potential danger. Reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the annual crime statistics but the information involving the incident will be kept as confidential as possible, consistent with applicable law.

REPORTING AN EMERGENCY

HOW TO REPORT AN EMERGENCY

The campus community is encouraged to call 203-576-4911 to report any situation on-campus that could constitute a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate or on-going threat to the campus. Dialing 203-576-4911 is also the best way to help expedite an emergency notification to alert the rest of the campus community of any threat to our community.

RESPONSE PROCEDURES FOR AN EMERGENCY OR DANGEROUS SITUATION

When a serious threat or disaster to the campus community occurs, Campus Security and the University will coordinate with other first responders, which may include the Bridgeport Police Department and the Bridgeport Fire Department. University of Bridgeport incident response resources include the City of Bridgeport Office of Emergency Management and can help mitigate impacts to the campus. Depending on the nature and magnitude of the incident, other local, state, and federal agencies may be called upon for assistance.

CONFIRMING A SIGNIFICANT EMERGENCY OR DANGEROUS SITUATION

First responders and essential personnel in the Department of Campus Security are responsible for determining if an emergency warning is needed. The emergency warning would be sent out by the Dean of Students and/or her designees. Those responsible for activating the alert system on campus include, but are not limited to:

- Dean of Students
- Director of Housing and Residential Life
- Office of Marketing and Communication
- Campus Security personnel (backups to activate alert)

University of Bridgeport works in close collaboration with agencies and departments both on and off campus to gather and assess information related to events that may pose an immediate threat or hazard to the University. University of Bridgeport, as the first responders, will investigate all reported incidents to determine if the incident poses an immediate threat to the University community. University of Bridgeport will relay a situation update to the local first responders (fire and police) where the incident will be confirmed as a threat and implement procedures to minimize the impact of the incident to the campus community. After a threat is determined, University of Bridgeport will activate our EOC (Emergency Operation Center) located above Campus Security.

The EOC is the physical location at which the coordination of information and resources to support campus incident management activities takes place. Once the EOC is activated, the team members will gather to discuss the emergency, notify the campus community and deploy university resources to the emergency or dangerous situation. The EOC committee is also responsible for getting information to and from the incident site to local responders and University of Bridgeport leadership. Furthermore, if a large-scale situation exceeds, or is likely to exceed, available campus capabilities and resources, the EOC would contact local first responders and the Bridgeport Emergency Management Office for additional resources.
AUTHORIZED OFFICIALS

During or in the time leading up to an emergency that threatens life, safety, or security, it will be necessary to notify University community with speed and accuracy. Conditions may not allow time for responders or other officials to seek approval to send notification messages.

For this reason, University of Bridgeport has designated specific campus officials to serve as authorized officials who are empowered to authorize the issuance of emergency notifications. Each authorized official is expected to act within his/her realm of responsibility as defined by the University of Bridgeport leadership and authorize emergency notification when experience and prudence indicate that emergency conditions warrant such actions be taken.

It is important to understand the distinction between the authorization of an emergency notification and the issuance of a notification. Authorizing a notification involves:

- Making a determination that a broadcast is necessary,
- Formulating message content,
- Selecting the appropriate segment of the campus to receive notification, and
- Choosing the appropriate communication tool(s).

In contrast, issuing a notification is the physical act of using a communication tool to send a notification message to the population. Authorized officials likely will have not received training for all the emergency broadcast systems, nor is this necessary. Upon authorization of an emergency broadcast, the authorized official will contact an individual who is trained to operate the system to send the alert.

The following individuals are the authorized officials at University of Bridgeport (in no particular order listed below). Such authority is delegated to these officials on the list with whom the EOC is able to contact in a timely manner:

- President
- Provost
- Chief Operating Officer
- Executive Director of Campus Security and Safety

NOTIFYING THE CAMPUS

Decisions concerning whether to issue a broadcast will be made on a case-by-case basis using the following criteria:

- Nature of the situation
- Continuing danger to the campus community
- Possible risk of compromising law enforcement efforts

Once an emergency warrants an alert, the authorized official will, without delay, and taking into account the safety of the campus community, determine the content of the broadcast and initiate the broadcast system, unless issuing a broadcast will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency. The Dean of Students and/or designees will activate the appropriate emergency broadcast system.

A library of broadcast statements are pre-drafted for anticipated emergencies. The Dean of Students is responsible for disseminating these statements when immediate campus notification is necessary. The release of all subsequent information is collaborated upon by first responders, the EOC Committee members and University of Bridgeport administration, and is released as the situation unfolds.

NOTIFICATION METHODS

The following methods may be used to notify the campus community of various emergencies that may affect the campus community:

- LiveSafe Emergency Broadcast System
- Phone
- Text message
- Email
LiveSafe is University of Bridgeport’s campus-wide emergency broadcast system. It is used when there is a severe threat to the public safety and health of the entire campus. The campus community will receive a notification through their smartphone, SMS text or University email when a broadcast message is sent.

Individuals and organizations outside the campus community are notified of emergency and dangerous situations through the use of local media (i.e., radio and television), University of Bridgeport’s website, and Facebook and Twitter feeds. Public Affairs receives information to update these sources from the EOC and provides such updates to the media.

PROCEDURES FOR EVACUATION IN EMERGENCY OR DANGEROUS SITUATIONS

In the event of an emergency or dangerous situation, the EOC will direct students, faculty, staff, and guests to evacuate a building, several buildings, a portion of the campus, or the entire campus. The campus community will be asked to follow building and campus evacuation protocols and to obey directions from University of Bridgeport Campus Security and on-scene emergency responders.

Certain events, like a hazardous materials release, may require the University of Bridgeport community and the general public to shelter-in-place to prevent exposure to harmful elements.

DRILLS AND EXERCISES

The University will test emergency response and evacuation procedures annually.

Additional building evacuations drills are mandated for University of Bridgeport campus buildings. Building Managers work with Campus Security to schedule a drill for their building. The drill will be coordinated by Security and the Building Manager, in conjunction with Facilities. On the scheduled date, Facilities activates the fire alarm while Security, assesses the evacuation, documenting the drill for any improvements needed.

University of Bridgeport administration and departments participate in tabletop exercises and emergency drills on-campus with city and state officials. The City of Bridgeport Office of Emergency Management designs and orchestrates these simulations and recruits volunteers from the campus and local community to serve as role players during the exercises. All exercises are conducted utilizing standard National Incident Management System and Incident Command System principles. In addition, comprehensive reviews are completed for each campus drill, tabletop exercise, and full-scale simulation.

Two tests of LiveSafe Emergency Broadcast System are conducted each calendar year.

PROMOTING EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

University of Bridgeport promotes its emergency procedures through training sessions, drills, and extensive collaboration with the City of Bridgeport Office of Emergency Management.

Students living on-campus receive training by participating in drills held throughout the academic year.

Building managers are selected for every building on campus and trained to follow the building and emergency action plan for their designated area. This includes promoting proper emergency procedures to faculty and staff housed in each building.
EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICIES

The University of Bridgeport affirms its commitment to promote the goals of fairness and equity for every member of our community and in all programs and activities. Consistent with the University’s commitment to Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the University prohibits discrimination in admissions, educational programs and services, and employment on the basis of race, color, religious creed, age, marital status, national origin, ancestry, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, genetic information, veteran status and any other basis protected by law.

POLICY REGARDING ACTS OF VIOLENCE, BIAS OR HATE

Any threat or act of violence, intimidation, or harassment based upon an individual’s (or group’s) race, color, religious creed, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or any other basis protected by law will not be tolerated. Similarly, any act or behavior motivated by an individual’s bias against any characteristic of another person’s identity protected by law – regardless of whether the behavior is intentional or unintentional – is strictly prohibited.

The University recognizes and respects the values of free speech and expression, which require that even distasteful opinions and statements be countenanced, whether popular or unpopular, politically correct or incorrect, foolish or wise, naive or sophisticated. At the same time, the University expects members of our community to be responsible and sensitive when exercising these rights. Free inquiry cannot long exist in a community that permits any of its members deliberately to harm, by deed or word, other members.

Any incident of bias, harassment or other misconduct in violation of University policy should be reported to Campus Security or the Office of the Title IX Compliance, Equity & Inclusion or titleix@bridgeport.edu. The Director of Title IX Compliance, Equity & Inclusion & Title IX Coordinator or his/her designee will review the complaint, investigate or refer the complaint for investigation, and the University will take appropriate action in accordance with University policies.

POLICY ON DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, SEXUAL MISCONDUCT, AND RETALIATION

NON-DISCRIMINATION STATEMENT

The University of Bridgeport (the "University") is committed to providing a workplace and educational environment, as well as other benefits, programs, and activities that are free from discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. Consistent with the University’s commitment to equal opportunity and non-discrimination, and in compliance with federal and state civil rights laws and regulations, the University strictly prohibits discrimination and harassment. Prohibited conduct includes discrimination and harassment based on race, color, sex, pregnancy, religion, creed, ethnicity, national origin, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran or military status, predisposing genetic characteristics, victim status1 or any other protected category under applicable local, state or federal law. Prohibited conduct also includes retaliation against a person for the good faith reporting of these forms of conduct or participation in an investigation or proceeding under this Policy.

Any member of the campus community who acts to deny, deprive or limit the educational, employment, residential, or social access, benefits, or opportunities of any member of the campus community, including guests or visitors, based on their protected class, is subject to sanctions under this Policy. Upon notice, the University will appropriately address and remedy all allegations per the resolution procedures described herein. Vendors, guests, visitors, and other non-campus members who engage in discriminatory actions within University of Bridgeport programs, activities, or on University of Bridgeport property are not subject to the Grievance Processes under this Policy. However, they may be subject to actions that limit their access and involvement with UB programs as the result of such misconduct.

The University is committed to stopping, preventing, and remediing discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, and retaliation and addressing any violations of this Policy. Accordingly, the University has created two grievance processes to accomplish this task; the Title IX Grievance Process and the Discrimination, Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, and Retaliation (DHSMR) Grievance Process. The Title IX Grievance Process is designed to address conduct that falls under the Title IX Regulation’s definition of sexual harassment. In contrast, the DHSMR Grievance Process provides a process for the resolution of all complaints of violations of this Policy that fall outside Title IX covered conduct. For more on the Grievance Processes, see page 37.

POLICY RATIONALE
The University adopts these policies and procedures in furtherance of:
A. preventing, eliminating and addressing discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, retaliation, and other civil rights offenses;
B. fostering a climate where all individuals are well-informed and supported in preventing and reporting discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, retaliation, and other civil rights offenses; and
C. providing clear standards and a fair, prompt, and impartial process for all parties by which violations of this Policy will be addressed.
The University will take prompt and effective action to eliminate discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, retaliation, and other civil rights offenses; prevent their reoccurrence, and remedy their effects.

SCOPE
The purpose of this Policy is the prohibition of all forms of discrimination, including but not limited to: exclusion from activities such as admission, athletics, or employment based on a protected status, and sex-based discrimination encompassing sexual harassment, sexual assault, stalking, sexual exploitation, dating or domestic violence, and other civil rights offenses. This Policy applies to all academic and administrative units of the University, and all members of the University community, including students, staff, faculty, visitors, contractors, applicants for admission to or employment with the University, and participants in the University’s programs or activities. In accordance with federal, state, and local laws, the grievance process may differ depending on the type of discrimination alleged. See the grievance processes below for more information.

JURISDICTION
For a full statement of the University’s jurisdiction over students with respect to this Policy, see Key to UB, Chapter 5, “Jurisdiction,” which is fully incorporated by reference herein. The University’s jurisdiction over employees extends to any acts committed within the workplace or which negatively impacts students, other employees, or the working or educational environment.

The University will address notice and complaints to determine whether the alleged conduct occurred in the context of its employment or educational program or activity, has continuing effects on campus, occurred in an off-campus sponsored program or activity, or affects a substantial University interest. A substantial University interest includes, but is not limited to: actions that constitute a criminal offense as defined by law; situations in which it is determined that the Respondent poses an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of a member of the University community; and situations that are detrimental to the educational interests or mission of the University.

While the University may not control the websites, social media platforms, and other venues in which harassing communications are made, it will address and attempt to mitigate the effects of discriminatory, harassing, or retaliatory communications. Members of the community are encouraged to be good digital citizens and to refrain from online misconduct, such as feeding anonymous gossip sites, sharing inappropriate content via social media, unwelcome sexting, revenge porn, breaches of privacy, or otherwise using the ease of transmission and anonymity of the Internet or other technology to harm another member of the University community.

2 Title IX is a federal civil rights law that protects individuals from discrimination based on sex.
REVOCATION BY OPERATION OF LAW
If any portion of the Final Title IX Rule is stayed or held invalid by a court of law, or if the Final Title IX Rule is withdrawn or modified not to require elements of this Policy, the invalidated portions will be revoked or modified as required, as of the publication date of the opinion or order. If the Title IX Grievance Process is revoked, any conduct covered under that Process will be investigated and adjudicated under the DHSMR Grievance Process (see page 37).

DEFINITIONS
For purposes of this Policy, words and phrases used in this Policy are listed below.

- Advisor: a person chosen by a party or appointed by the University to accompany the party to meetings related to the resolution process, advise the party on the resolution process, and conduct cross-examination for the party at Title IX hearings, if any. The Advisor may also be an advocate chosen by the party to offer emotional support, information, and resources.

- Complainant: an individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute harassment or discrimination based on a protected class; or retaliation for engaging in a protected activity.

- Confidential Resource: an employee who is not an Official with Authority or a Mandated Reporter of notice of harassment, discrimination, and retaliation. Confidential Resources at the University are:

- Day: a calendar day

- Discriminatory harassment: unwelcome conduct by any member or group of the University community against a member of the University community based on that member's actual or perceived membership in a class protected by policy or law.

- Education program or activity: locations, events, or circumstances over which the University exercises substantial control over both the Respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment or discrimination occurs and also includes any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the University.

- Final Determination: The decision-makers' written determination regarding responsibility based on a preponderance of the evidence. The determination shall include:
  - An identification of allegations,
  - A description of procedural steps,
  - Findings of facts,
  - An application of the Policy to the facts,
  - A determination of responsibility and the decision-makers' rationale,
  - Disciplinary sanctions and remedies, and
  - Procedures and bases for appeal.

- Finding: a conclusion by the preponderance of the evidence that the conduct did or did not occur as alleged.

- Formal Complaint: a document filed by a Complainant or signed by the Title IX Coordinator alleging

4 “Document filed by a complainant” refers to a document or electronic submission (such as an email or through an online harassment or discrimination based on a protected class against a Respondent or alleging retaliation for engaging in a protected activity against a Respondent and requesting that the University investigate the allegation.

- Formal Grievance Process: A method of formal resolution designated by the University to address allegations of discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, and retaliation.

- Formal Title IX Grievance Process: A method of formal resolution designated by the University to address conduct that falls within the policies included below and which complies with the requirements of 34 CFR Part 106.45.

- Grievance Process Pool: A pool of internal and/or investigators, decision-makers, appeal officers, and Advisors who may perform any or all of these roles (though not at the same time or with respect to the same case).

- Hearing Officer: refers to those who have decision-making and sanctioning authority within the University's Formal Grievance processes.

- Informal Resolution: A process employed after the filing of a Formal Complaint with the written voluntary consent of the parties. An Informal Resolution does not involve a full investigation and adjudication of the complaint. This process may include mediation and other forms of alternative conflict resolution.

- Investigator: the person charged by the University with: gathering facts about an alleged violation of this Policy, assessing relevance and credibility, synthesizing the evidence, and compiling this information into an investigation report and file of directly related evidence.

- Mandated Reporter: an employee of the University who is obligated under this Policy to share knowledge, notice, and reports of discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, and retaliation with the Title IX Coordinator [and their supervisor].

- Notice: information received by the Title IX Coordinator or other Official with Authority of the alleged occurrence of discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, or retaliation.

- Official with Authority (OWA): an employee of the University explicitly vested, under this Policy, with the responsibility to implement corrective measures for discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, or retaliation on behalf of the University.

- Parties: the Complainant(s) and Respondent(s), collectively.

- Protected Class: Individuals legally protected from discrimination due to their race, color, sex, pregnancy, religion, creed, ethnicity, national origin, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran or military status, predisposing genetic characteristics, domestic victim status or any other protected category under applicable local, state or federal law.

- Remedies: post-determination actions directed to the Complainant and/or the community as mechanisms to address safety, prevent recurrence, and restore or preserve equal access to the University's educational program.

- Respondent: an individual reported to be the perpetrator of conduct that could constitute discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, or retaliation.

- Resolution: the result of an informal or formal grievance process.

- Sanction: a consequence imposed by the University on a Respondent who is found to have violated this Policy.

- Sexual Harassment: an umbrella category including, but not limited to, the offenses of sexual harassment, sexual assault, stalking, and dating violence, and domestic violence as defined by the U.S. Department of Education’s Final Rule under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972.

- Title IX: Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits discrimination based on sex in education programs and activities that receive federal financial assistance.

- Title IX Coordinator: an official designated by the University to ensure compliance with Title IX and the University’s Title IX program. References to the Coordinator throughout this Policy may also encompass a designee of the Coordinator for specific tasks.

- Title IX Covered Conduct: Discrimination and Sexual Harassment as defined in the U.S. Department of

Education’s Final Rule under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972

- Title IX Team: the Title IX Coordinator, deputy coordinators, and any member of the Grievance Process Pool.

DISABILITY AND ACCOMMODATION

The University is committed to full compliance with the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), as amended, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, which prohibit discrimination against qualified persons with disabilities, as well as other federal and state laws and regulations pertaining to individuals with disabilities.

Under the ADA and its amendments, a person has a disability if they have a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity. The ADA protects individuals who have a record of a substantially limiting impairment. A substantial impairment is one that significantly limits or restricts a major life activity such as hearing, seeing, speaking, breathing, performing manual tasks, walking, or caring for oneself.

The University’s ADA and 504 Coordinator are responsible for responding to grievances and conducting investigations of any allegation of noncompliance or discrimination based on disability.

Grievances related to disability status and/or accommodations will be addressed under the DHSMR Grievance Process (see page 37).

A. Students with Disabilities

   The University is committed to providing qualified students with disabilities with reasonable accommodations and support needed to ensure equal access to the academic programs, facilities, and activities of the University.

   All accommodations are made on an individualized basis. A student requesting any accommodation should contact the Director of Student Accessibility Services, who coordinates services for students with disabilities.

   The Director of Student Accessibility Services reviews documentation provided by the student and, in consultation with the student, determines which reasonable accommodations are appropriate for the student’s particular needs and academic program(s).

B. Employees with Disabilities

   Pursuant to the ADA, The University will provide reasonable accommodation(s) to all qualified employees with known disabilities when their disability affects the performance of their essential job functions, except when doing so would be unduly disruptive or would result in undue hardship to the University.

   An employee with a disability is responsible for submitting a request for accommodation, along with the necessary documentation, to the Human Resources Director. The Human Resources Director will work with the employee’s supervisor to identify which essential functions of the position are affected by the employee’s disability and what reasonable accommodations could enable the employee to perform those duties. The Human Resources Director may be reached via email at hr@bridgeport.edu or via phone at (203) 576-4588.

PROHIBITED CONDUCT

The sections below describe specific forms of legally prohibited conduct that are also prohibited under University policy. When speech or conduct is protected by the First Amendment, it will not be considered a violation of University policy. Supportive measures will be offered to those impacted.

A. Discriminatory Harassment

Students, staff, administrators, and faculty are entitled to an educational and employment environment free of discriminatory harassment. Discriminatory harassment, defined above, is prohibited by University policy. The University does not tolerate discriminatory harassment of any employee, student, visitor, or guest and will act to remedy all forms of harassment when reported.

When discriminatory harassment rises to the level of creating a hostile environment\(^6\), the University may impose sanctions on the Respondent through the application of the appropriate grievance process below.

The University reserves the right to address offensive conduct or harassment that 1) does not rise to the level of creating a hostile environment, or 2) that is of a generic nature and not based on a protected status. Such conduct may be addressed through respectful conversation, remedial actions, education, effective Alternate Resolution, or other Informal Resolution mechanisms. For assistance with Informal Resolution techniques and approaches, employees should contact the Director of Human Resources, and students should contact the Dean of Student.

B. Sexual Harassment

The Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights (OCR), the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), and the State of Connecticut regard Sexual Harassment as an unlawful discriminatory practice. Acts of sexual harassment may be committed by any person upon any other person, regardless of the sex, sexual orientation, and/or gender identity of those involved.

In this Policy, Sexual Harassment, as an umbrella category, includes Title IX Covered Sexual Harassment as defined by the Final Title IX Rule as well as Sexual Harassment that falls outside the Final Title IX Rule.

1. Title IX Covered Sexual Harassment

a) Quid Pro Quo:

(1) an employee of the University,
(2) conditions the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the University,
(3) on an individual’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct; and/or

b) Sexual Harassment\(^7\):

(1) unwelcome conduct,
(2) determined by a reasonable person,
(3) to be so severe, and
(4) pervasive, and,
(5) objectively offensive,
(6) that it effectively denies a person equal access to the University’s education program or activity.

c) Sexual assault, defined as:

(1) Sex Offenses, Forcible:

\(^6\) A hostile environment is one that unreasonably interferes with, limits, or effectively denies an individual’s educational or employment access, benefits, or opportunities. This discriminatory effect results from harassing verbal, written, graphic, or physical conduct that is severe or pervasive and objectively offensive.

\(^7\) Note: There is a distinction between Title IX Covered Sexual Harassment and Sexual Harassment that falls outside of Title IX. Title IX Covered Sexual Harassment is defined, in part, as unwelcome conduct, determined by a reasonable person, to be severe and pervasive and objectively offensive. The University’s standard for addressing Sexual Harassment complaints that fall outside of Title IX, is whether the conduct is severe or pervasive enough to create an abusive or hostile work environment. Non-Title IX Sexual Harassment is discussed more thoroughly in the DHSMR Grievance Process below.
(a) Any sexual act directed against another person,
(b) without the consent of the Complainant,
(c) including instances in which the Complainant is incapable of giving consent.

(2) Forcible Rape:
(a) Penetration,
(b) no matter how slight,
(c) of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or
(d) oral penetration by a sex organ of another person,
(e) without the consent of the Complainant.

(3) Forcible Sodomy:
(a) Oral or anal sexual intercourse with another person,
(b) forcibly,
(c) and/or against that person’s will (non-consensually), or
(d) not forcibly or against the person’s will in instances in which the Complainant is incapable of giving consent because of age or because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

(4) Sexual Assault with an Object:
(a) The use of an object or instrument to penetrate,
(b) however slightly,
(c) the genital or anal opening of the body of another person,
(d) forcibly,
(e) and/or against that person’s will (non-consensually),
(f) or not forcibly or against the person’s will in instances in which the Complainant is incapable of giving consent because of age or because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

(5) Forcible Fondling:
(a) The touching of the private body parts of another person (buttocks, groin, breasts),
(b) for the purpose of sexual gratification,
(c) forcibly,
(d) and/or against that person’s will (non-consensually),
(e) or not forcibly or against the person’s will in instances in which the Complainant is incapable of giving consent because of age or because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

(6) Sex Offenses, Non-forcible:
(a) Incest:
   (i.) Non-forcible sexual intercourse,
   (ii.) between persons who are related to each other,
   (iii.) within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by Connecticut law.
(b) Statutory Rape:
   (i.) Non-forcible sexual intercourse,
   (ii.) with a person who is under the statutory age of consent of 16.

d) Dating Violence, defined as:
(1) violence,
(2) on the basis of sex,
(3) committed by a person,
(4) who is in or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the Complainant.
(a) The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the Complainant’s statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. For the purposes of this definition—
(b) Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.
(c) Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.
e) Domestic Violence, defined as:
   (1) violence,
   (2) on the basis of sex,
   (3) committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the Complainant,
   (4) by a person with whom the Complainant shares a child in common, or
   (5) by a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the Complainant as a spouse or intimate partner, or
   (6) by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the Complainant under the domestic or family violence laws of the state of Connecticut, or (7) by any other person against an adult or youth Complainant who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the state of Connecticut.

   To categorize an incident as Domestic Violence, the relationship between the Respondent and the Complainant must be more than just two people living together as roommates. The people cohabitating must be current or former spouses or have an intimate relationship.

   f) Stalking, defined as:
      (1) engaging in a course of conduct,8
      (2) on the basis of sex,
      (3) directed at a specific person, that
         (a) would cause a reasonable person9 to fear for the person’s safety, or
         (b) the safety of others; or
         (c) suffer substantial emotional distress10.

2. Sexual Harassment Other than Title IX Covered Conduct
   The standard for evaluating an alleged violation of sexual harassment when the conduct falls outside of Title IX Covered Sexual Harassment will be as follows:
   a) Includes verbal or physical conduct,
   b) of a sexual nature,
   c) either Quid Pro Quo and Hostile Environment Harassment.

   (1) Quid Pro Quo Harassment
      a) harassment by a person who has power or authority over another,
      b) explicitly or implicitly request to submit to sexual conduct,
      c) submission to such conduct is made a term or condition of a person’s academic standing or employment or receiving any other benefit or privilege to which the person is entitled.

   (2) Hostile Environment Harassment
      a) unwelcome conduct,
      b) determined by a reasonable person,
      c) to be so severe, or
      d) pervasive, and
      e) objectively offensive,
      f) that it effectively denies a person equal access to the University’s education program or activity.

3. Consensual Relationships between employees and students
   Consistent with the University’s commitment to comply with the spirit of these laws, all employees must avoid and refrain from romantic or sexual relationships, even if consensual, with students whom

8 For purposes of this definition, course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the Respondent directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person’s property.
9 For purposes of this definition, Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the Complainant.
10 For purposes of this definition, Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may but does not necessarily require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.
they teach, advise or supervise (or whom they may teach or supervise in the future). The relationship between teacher, Advisor, or mentor and student must be protected from influences or activities that can interfere with learning and personal development. In addition to creating the potential for coercion, any such relationship jeopardizes the integrity of the educational process by creating an actual or potential conflict of interest and may impair the educational environment for other students. Employees or students with questions about this policy are advised to consult with the University’s Title IX Coordinator.

4. Concepts and definitions applicable to Title IX and Non-Title IX covered conduct

A. Force
Force is the use of physical violence and/or physical imposition to gain sexual access. Force also includes threats, intimidation (implied threats), and coercion that is intended to overcome resistance or produce consent.

B. Coercion
Coercion is unreasonable pressure for sexual activity. Coercive behavior differs from seductive behavior based on the type of pressure someone uses to get consent from another. When someone makes clear to you that they do not want sex, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point can be coercive.

C. Consent Consent is:
• knowing, and
• voluntary, and
• clear permission
• by word or action
• to engage in sexual activity.

Since individuals may experience the same interaction in different ways, it is the responsibility of each party to determine that the other has consented before engaging in the activity.

If consent is not clearly provided prior to engaging in the activity, consent may be ratified by word or action at some point during the interaction or thereafter, but clear communication from the outset is strongly encouraged.

For consent to be valid, there must be a clear expression in words or actions that the other individual consented to that specific sexual conduct. Reasonable reciprocation can be implied. For example, if someone kisses you, you can kiss them back (if you want to) without the need to explicitly obtain their consent to being kissed.

Consent can also be withdrawn once given, as long as the withdrawal is reasonably and clearly communicated. If consent is withdrawn, that sexual activity should cease within a reasonable time.

Consent to some sexual contact (such as kissing or fondling) cannot be presumed to be consent for other sexual activity (such as intercourse). A current or previous intimate relationship is not sufficient to constitute consent.

Proof of consent or non-consent is not a burden placed on either party involved in an incident. Instead, the burden remains on the University to determine whether its policy has been violated. The existence of consent is based on the totality of the circumstances evaluated from the perspective of a reasonable person in the same or similar circumstances, including the context in which the alleged incident occurred and any similar, previous patterns that may be evidenced.
Consent in relationships must also be considered in context. When parties consent to BDSM or other forms of kink, non-consent may be shown by the use of a safe word. Resistance, force, violence, or even saying, “no” may be part of the kink and thus consensual, so the University’s evaluation of communication in kink situations should be guided by reasonableness, rather than strict adherence to the Policy that assumes non-kink relationships as a default.

D. Incapacitation
Incapacitation is defined as a state where someone cannot make rational, reasonable decisions because they lack the capacity to give knowing and informed consent. A person cannot consent if they are unable to understand what is happening or are disoriented, helpless, asleep, or unconscious for any reason. This policy covers a person whose incapacity results from mental disability, involuntary physical restraint, and/or from the taking of incapacitating drugs.

C. Other Civil Rights Offenses
In addition to the Harassment described above, this Policy prohibits the following offenses when the conduct is based upon the Complainant’s actual or perceived membership in a protected class. Alleged violations that fall under this section will be resolved under the University’s DHS MR Grievance Process (see page 37).

1. Sexual Exploitation, defined as:
   - Taking non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for one’s own benefit or for the benefit of anyone other than the person being exploited, and that conduct does not otherwise constitute sexual harassment under this policy. Examples of Sexual Exploitation include, but are not limited to:
     a) Sexual voyeurism (such as observing or allowing others to observe a person undressing or using the bathroom or engaging in sexual acts, without the consent of the person being observed)
     b) Invasion of sexual privacy
     c) Taking pictures, video, or audio recording of another in a sexual act, or in any other sexually-related activity when there is a reasonable expectation of privacy during the activity, without the consent of all involved in the activity, or exceeding the boundaries of consent, including the making or posting of revenge pornography
     d) Prostituting another person
     e) Engaging in sexual activity with another person while knowingly infected with human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) or a sexually-transmitted disease (STD) or infection (STI), without informing the other person of the infection
     f) Causing or attempting to cause the incapacitation of another person (through alcohol, drugs, or any other means) for the purpose of compromising that person’s ability to give consent to sexual activity, or for the purpose of making that person vulnerable to non-consensual sexual activity
     g) Misappropriation of another person’s identity on apps, websites, or other venues designed for dating or sexual connections
     h) Forcing a person to take an action against that person’s will by threatening to show, post, or share information, video, audio, or an image that depicts the person’s nudity or sexual activity
     i) Knowingly soliciting a minor for sexual activity
     j) Engaging in sex trafficking
     k) Creation, possession, or dissemination of child pornography

2. Threatening or causing physical harm, extreme verbal, emotional, or psychological abuse, or other conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person;

11 Conduct not based upon actual or perceived membership in a protected class may be adjudicated under the University’s Code of Conduct.
3. Discrimination, defined as actions that deprive, limit, or deny other members of the community of educational or employment access, benefits, or opportunities;

4. Intimidation, defined as implied threats or acts that cause an unreasonable fear of harm in another;

5. Hazing, defined as acts likely to cause physical or psychological harm or social ostracism to any person within the University community, when related to the admission, initiation, pledging, joining, or any other group-affiliation activity (as defined further in the Hazing Policy);

6. Bullying, defined as:
   a) Repeated and/or severe
   b) Aggressive behavior
   c) Likely to intimidate or intentionally hurt, control, or diminish another person, physically and/or mentally
   d) That is not speech or conduct otherwise protected by the First Amendment.

Violation of any other University policies may constitute a Civil Rights Offense when the violation is motivated by actual or perceived membership in a protected class, and the result is a discriminatory limitation or denial of employment or educational access, benefits, or opportunities.

Sanctions for the above-listed Civil Rights Offenses range from reprimand through expulsion or termination.

D. Retaliation

Protected activity under this policy includes reporting an incident that may implicate this policy, participating in the grievance process, supporting a Complainant or Respondent, assisting in providing information relevant to an investigation, and/or acting in good faith to oppose conduct that constitutes a violation of this Policy.

It is prohibited for any member of the University’s community to take materially adverse action by intimidating, threatening, coercing, harassing, or discriminating against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by law or policy, or because the individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this policy.

Acts of alleged retaliation should be reported immediately to the Title IX Coordinator and will be promptly investigated. The University is prepared to take appropriate steps to protect individuals who fear that they may be subjected to retaliation.

Charges against an individual for code of conduct violations that do not involve sex discrimination or sexual harassment but arise out of the same facts or circumstances as a report or complaint of sex discrimination, or a report or complaint of sexual harassment, for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX, constitutes retaliation.

The exercise of rights protected under the First Amendment does not constitute retaliation.

Charging an individual with a code of conduct violation for making a materially false statement in bad faith in the course of a grievance proceeding under this policy and procedure does not constitute retaliation.
REPORTING, RESPONSIBILITIES, AND OPTIONS

A. Filing a Complaint

1. Notice or complaints of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation may be made using any of the following options:

a) File a complaint with, or give verbal notice to, the Title IX Coordinator, Deputy Title IX Coordinators, or Officials with Authority listed above. Such a report may be made by anyone at any time (including during non-business hours) by using the telephone number, email address, or by mail to the office address listed above.

b) Report online, using the reporting form linked here. While anonymous reports are accepted, the University’s ability to investigate or respond may be limited. Additionally, the University endeavors to provide supportive measures to Complainants and may be limited in its ability to do so when a report is anonymous. Finally, an anonymous report may result in an investigation that reveals the identity of the reporter.

Reporting carries no obligation to initiate a formal response. The University respects Complainants’ requests to dismiss complaints where there is no compelling threat to health or safety. Barring a threat to health or safety, the Complainant maintains autonomy and should not fear a loss of privacy by making a report that allows the University to discuss and provide supportive measures.

Report to any non-confidential employee. All non-confidential employees are Mandated Reporters and required to report discrimination, harassment, or retaliation to the Title IX Coordinator.

2. Formal Complaint

A Formal Complaint is a document that alleges a policy violation by a Respondent and requests that the University investigate the allegation(s). The document must be filed and signed by the Complainant or may be signed by the Title IX Coordinator. A Formal Complaint may be filed with the Title IX Coordinator in person, by mail, or by electronic mail, by using the contact information in the section immediately above, or as described in this section. As used in this paragraph, the phrase "document filed by a Complainant" means a document or electronic submission (such as by electronic mail or through an online portal provided for this purpose by the University) that contains the Complainant’s physical or digital signature.

If notice is submitted in a form that does not meet this standard, the Title IX Coordinator will contact the Complainant to ensure that it is filed correctly.

a) The Title IX Coordinator May Sign the Complaint

The Title IX Coordinator has ultimate discretion over whether the University proceeds when the Complainant does not wish to do so and may sign a Formal Complaint to initiate a grievance process when there is a compelling risk to health or safety that requires the University to pursue formal action to protect the community. A compelling risk to health or safety may result from evidence of patterns of misconduct, predatory conduct, threats, abuse of minors, use of weapons, and/or violence.

The Title IX Coordinator does not become the Complainant when they execute a Formal Complaint. The Complainant is the individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute a violation of this policy.

3. Promptness

The University will promptly address all allegations upon receipt of notice or Formal Complaint. Resolution of complaints will not exceed ninety (90) calendar days; however, the time frame may be extended for good cause, including, but not limited to, requests by external law enforcement to delay, unavailability of key witnesses, and University break periods. The Title IX Coordinator will notify the Parties in writing of any extension, the reason for the extension, and an estimate of the additional time needed to resolve the matter.
4. Privacy and Confidentiality
Every effort is made by the University to preserve the privacy of reports. The University will only share information related to allegations of prohibited conduct with University employees who require the information for the purpose of assessment, investigation, and resolution of the report.

The University may contact parents or guardians to inform them of situations in which there is a significant and articulable health or safety risk, but will usually consult with the student first before doing so.

5. Amnesty
The University encourages the reporting of misconduct and crimes and maintains a policy of offering parties and witnesses amnesty from minor policy violations related to the incident. Amnesty does not apply to more serious allegations, such as physical abuse of another or illicit drug distribution. The University may, at its discretion, provide purely educational options with no official disciplinary finding, rather than punitive sanctions, to those who offer their assistance to others in need.

6. Time Limits on Reporting
There is no time limit on providing notice or complaints of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation to the Title IX Coordinator. If the Respondent is no longer subject to the University’s jurisdiction or significant time has passed, the ability to investigate, respond, and provide remedies may be limited or impossible. The University will provide appropriate supportive measures.

7. False Allegations
Deliberately false or malicious accusations under this policy, as opposed to allegations which, even if erroneous, are made in good faith, are a serious offense and will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

Additionally, witnesses and parties knowingly providing false evidence, tampering with or destroying evidence after being directed to preserve such evidence, or deliberately misleading an official conducting an investigation can be subject to discipline under University policy.

B. Mandated Reporting
All employees, except confidential employees and student workers, are deemed "Mandated Reporters." Mandated Reporters must notify the Title IX Coordinator, immediately, of any knowledge they have that a member of the community is experiencing discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, or retaliation.

Complainants may want to carefully consider whether they share personally identifiable details with Mandated Reporters, as those details must be shared with the Title IX Coordinator.

Supportive measures may be offered as the result of such disclosures without formal University action.

Failure of a Mandated Reporter, to report an incident of harassment or discrimination of which they become aware is a violation of University policy and can be subject to disciplinary action.

Mandated Reporters are encouraged to report their own misconduct as well as misconduct perpetrated against them.

On campus, confidential resources are not considered Mandated Reporters. They maintain confidentiality and are not required to report actual or suspected discrimination or harassment. They may offer options and resources without any obligation to inform an outside agency or campus official unless a Complainant Complainants who expect formal action in response to their allegations should report to any Mandated Reporter. The Mandated Reporter will immediately notify the Title IX Coordinator who will share resources, rights, and options.

Generally, disclosures in climate surveys and at campus events such as “Take Back the Night” marches, speak-outs, and Sexual Assault Awareness Month Programs do not provide notice that must be reported to the Title IX Coordinator by employees, unless the Complainant clearly indicates a desire to report or seeks a specific response from the University.

1. Clery Reporting Obligations and Timely Warnings
The University has a duty to report various forms of sexual misconduct and gender-based violence in accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act). No personally identifiable information is disclosed, but statistical information, including date, location, and crime category, is disclosed as part of the University’s annual Campus Security Policy & Campus Crime Statistics Report.

Parties reporting sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking should be aware that under the Clery Act, the University must issue timely warnings for incidents reported to them that pose a serious or continuing threat of bodily harm or danger to members of the campus community.

The University will ensure that a Complainant’s name and other identifying information is not disclosed, while still providing enough information for community members to make safety decisions in light of the potential danger.

C. Confidential Resources
Confidential Resources are UB employees who are not mandated to report notice of discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, and retaliation. Confidential resources maintain confidentiality when acting under the scope of their licensure, professional ethics, and professional credentials, except in extreme cases of immediate threat, danger, or abuse to a minor, elder, or individual with a disability, or when required to disclose by law or court order.

Confidential University employees will timely submit anonymous statistical information for Clery Act purposes unless they believe it would be harmful to their client, patient, or parishioner.

Confidential Resources at the University are:

D. Non-Confidential Resources
Complaints or notice of alleged policy violations, or inquiries about this Policy, may be made to:

- Title IX Coordinator
  Office of Title IX Compliance and Equity
TITI1E IX COORDINATOR
The University's Title IX Coordinator oversees the University's Policy on Discrimination, Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, and Retaliation. The Title IX Coordinator has the primary responsibility for coordinating the University's efforts related to the intake, investigation, resolution, and implementation of supportive measures to stop, remediate, and prevent conduct prohibited under this Policy.

1. Independence and Conflict-of-Interest
The Title IX Coordinator acts with independence, and is free from bias and conflicts of interest.

Concerns of bias, conflict of interest, or misconduct on the part of the Title IX Coordinator, should be directed to the University President at president@bridgeport.edu. Concerns of bias, a potential conflict of interest, or misconduct by any other Title IX Team member should be raised with the Title IX Coordinator.
SUPPORTIVE MEASURES
The University will offer and implement appropriate and reasonable supportive measures to the parties upon notice of alleged discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, or retaliation. Supportive measures are non-disciplinary, non-punitive, individualized services offered as appropriate and as reasonably available. They are without fee or charge to the parties and are provided to restore or preserve access to the University’s education program or activity. Supportive measures are designed to protect the safety of the parties and the University’s educational environment and to deter harassment, discrimination, and retaliation.

The Title IX Coordinator promptly makes supportive measures available to the parties upon receiving notice or a complaint of discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, or retaliation. At the time that supportive measures are offered, the University will inform the Complainant, in writing, that the Complainant may file a Formal Complaint with the University either at that time or in the future if they have not done so already. The Title IX Coordinator works with the Complainant to ensure that their wishes are taken into account with respect to the supportive measures that are planned and implemented.

The University will maintain the privacy of the supportive measures, provided that privacy does not impair the University’s ability to provide supportive measures. The University will act to ensure as minimal an academic impact on the parties as possible. The University will implement measures in a way that does not unreasonably burden the other party.

Supportive Measures include, but are not limited to:
- Referral to counseling, medical, or other healthcare services
- Referral to the Employee Assistance Program
- Referral to community-based service providers
- Visa and immigration assistance
- Student financial aid counseling
- Education to the community or community subgroup(s)
- Altering campus housing assignment(s)
- Altering work arrangements for employees or student-employees
- Safety planning
- Providing campus safety escorts
- Providing transportation accommodations
- Implementing contact limitations (no contact orders) between the parties
- Academic support, extensions of deadlines, or other course or program-related adjustments
- Trespass, Persona Non-Grata (PNG), or Be-On-the-Lookout (BOLO) orders
- Timely warnings
- Class schedule modifications, withdrawals, or leaves of absence
- Increased security and monitoring of certain areas of the campus
- Any other actions deemed appropriate by the Title IX Coordinator

EMERGENCY REMOVAL
The University can act to remove a Respondent entirely or partially from its education program or activities on an emergency basis when an individualized safety and risk analysis has determined that an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any student or other individual justifies removal. This risk analysis is performed by the Title IX Coordinator in conjunction with the CARE Team using its standard objective violence risk assessment procedures.

In all cases of emergency removal, the Respondent will be given notice including a written summary of the basis for the emergency removal and the opportunity to challenge the removal decision within three (3) days of that notice. In the event of a challenge to the removal decision, a meeting will be arranged by the Title IX Coordinator. The Respondent may be accompanied by an Advisor of their choice at this meeting, and a Complainant and their Advisor may be permitted to participate if the Title IX Coordinator determines it is equitable to do so. The purpose of this meeting is to allow the Respondent to show why the Respondent should not be removed; this meeting is not a hearing on the merits of the allegation(s), but rather is an administrative process intended to determine solely whether the emergency removal is appropriate. Meetings that are not requested within three (3) days of notice of removal are deemed waived. Beyond the opportunity to challenge the removal actions described here, there is no appeal process for emergency removal decisions.

The Title IX Coordinator or their designee, in consultation with CARE team members, has sole discretion under this policy to implement or stay an emergency removal and to determine the conditions and duration. Violation of an emergency removal under this policy will be grounds for discipline, which may include expulsion or termination.

The University will implement the least restrictive emergency actions possible in light of the circumstances and safety concerns. As determined by the Title IX Coordinator, these actions could include, but are not limited to: removing a student from a residence hall, temporarily reassigning an employee with their consent, restricting a student’s or employee’s access to, or use of, facilities or equipment, authorizing an administrative leave, and suspending a student’s participation in extracurricular activities, student employment, student organizational leadership, or intercollegiate/intramural athletics.

At the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator, alternative coursework options may be pursued to reduce negative academic impacts on the parties.

PREVENTION AND AWARENESS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT, OTHER FORMS OF VIOLENCE AND HATE CRIMES

All members of the University community play a role in fostering an environment free of unlawful discrimination. The University community is encouraged to take reasonable and prudent actions to prevent and respond to sexual assault, intimate partner violence, and misconduct based upon gender, gender identity or expression, race, ethnicity, and other discriminatory bases.

The University engages in ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns for students, faculty, and staff. The University’s Sexual Assault Response and Prevention Team (SARPT) works to provide the campus community with a collaborative and trauma-informed response to sexual assault and other forms of gender-based violence. SARPT members coordinate resources available to survivors and offer individualized support as needed.

The University’s Campus Resource Team (CRT) is a broader community coalition that includes members of the UB community, the Center for Family Justice, local police, and prosecutors. The Team meets twice per year to review the University’s sexual assault policies and to coordinate the resources available to Complainants and Respondents on and off campus.

Educational programs and workshops to promote awareness about various types of sexual misconduct and related issues are coordinated by the Title IX Coordinator, the Dean of Students, Residential Life, and Human Resources. Programs include, but are not limited to, new student and employee courses on sexual assault prevention, the Bringing in the Bystander™ bystander intervention program, annual faculty and staff sexual harassment training, and campus-wide awareness events such as the "One Love Escalation Workshop series" and "Take Back the Night."

GRIEVANCE PROCESSES FOR VIOLATION OF THE UNIVERSITY’S POLICY ON DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AND RETALIATION

Title IX Grievance Process and
Discrimination, Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, and Retaliation (DHSMR) Grievance process

I. INTRODUCTION: THE UNIVERSITY’S TWO-PROCESS SYSTEM

Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 prohibits any person in the United States from being discriminated against, based on sex, in seeking access to any educational program or activity receiving federal financial assistance. The U.S. Department of Education, which enforces Title IX, has long defined the meaning of Title IX’s prohibition on sex discrimination broadly to include various forms of sexual harassment and sexual violence that interfere with a student’s ability to access our educational programs and opportunities equally.

On May 19, 2020, the U.S. Department of Education issued a Final Rule under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (hereafter, the “Final TIX Rule” or “Final Rule”), that:

- Defines the meaning of “sexual harassment”
- Addresses how this University must respond to reports of conduct falling within that definition of sexual harassment, and
- Mandates a grievance process that this University must follow to comply with the law in these specific covered cases before issuing a disciplinary sanction against a person accused of sexual harassment.12

In recent years, “Title IX” cases have become a shorthand for any campus disciplinary process involving sex discrimination, including those arising from sexual harassment and sexual assault. But under the Final Title IX Rule, the University must narrow both the geographic scope of its authority to act under Title IX and the types of “sexual harassment” that it must subject to its Title IX investigation and adjudication process. Only incidents that fall within the Final Title IX Rule’s definition of sexual harassment will be investigated and, if appropriate, brought to a live hearing through the Title IX Grievance Process, defined below.

The University remains committed to addressing any violations of its policies, even those that do not meet the narrow standards defined under the Final Title IX Rule. Accordingly, in addition to the Title IX Grievance Process, prescribed by the U.S. Department of Education, the University has provided a Discrimination, Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, and Retaliation (DHSMR) Grievance Process. The DHSMR Grievance Process provides a process for the resolution of complaints of violations of the University’s Policy on Discrimination, Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, and Retaliation that fall outside Title IX covered conduct.13

During the Title IX Grievance Process, the University retains the right to initiate a separate grievance proceeding, under its DHSMR Grievance Process, for misconduct that it discovers falls outside of Title IX covered conduct.

The elements established in the Title IX Grievance Process under the Final Rule do not affect and are not transferable to any other process of the University except as narrowly defined in this process. This process does not set a precedent for other policies or processes of the University and may not be cited for or against any right or aspect of any other policy or process.

13 Title IX Covered Conduct is discrimination and sexual harassment as defined in the U.S. Department of Education’s Final Rule under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972.
Effective Date
These Processes will become effective on August 14, 2020, and will apply to Formal Complaints brought on or after that date. Complaints brought prior to August 14, 2020, and not resolved by that date will be investigated and adjudicated according to these processes.

Non-Discrimination in Application
The requirements and protections of these processes apply equally regardless of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, race, color, religion, disability, age, or other protected classes covered by federal or state law. Additionally, all requirements and protections are equitably provided to individuals regardless of status as a Complainant, Respondent, or Witness. Individuals who wish to file a complaint about the University’s policy or process may contact the Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights at https://ocrcas.ed.gov/contact-ocr, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission at https://www.eeoc.gov/, or the Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities at https://portal.ct.gov/CHRO.

Unionized Employees
Unionized or other categorized employees will be subject to the terms of their respective collective bargaining agreements to the extent those agreements do not conflict with federal or state compliance obligations.
II. TITLE IX GRIEVANCE PROCESS

A. Filing a Formal Complaint

The timeframe for the Title IX Grievance Process begins with the filing of a Formal Complaint. The Grievance Process will be concluded promptly, and no longer than ninety (90) calendar days after the filing of the Formal Complaint. The Process may be extended for a good reason, including but not limited to the absence of a party, a party’s Advisor, or a witness; concurrent law enforcement activity; or the need for language assistance or an accommodation of disabilities. The procedure for applying for extensions is described below.

To file a Formal Complaint, a Complainant must provide the Title IX Coordinator with a written, signed complaint describing the facts alleged. A Formal Complaint includes a document or electronic submission (such as by electronic mail or through an online portal provided for this purpose by the University) that contains the Complainant’s physical or digital signature.

Complainants are only able to file a Formal Complaint under this Policy if they are currently participating in, or attempting to participate in, the education programs or activities of the University, including as an employee. For Complainants who do not meet these criteria, the University will utilize its DHSMR Grievance Process.

If a Complainant does not wish to make a Formal Complaint, the Title IX Coordinator may determine a Formal Complaint is necessary. The University will inform the Complainant of this decision in writing, and the Complainant need not participate in the process further but will receive all notices issued under this Policy and Process.

Nothing in the University’s Policy or Process prevents a Complainant from seeking the assistance of state or local law enforcement alongside the appropriate on-campus process.

A Complainant who files a Formal Complaint may elect, at any time, to address the matter through the University’s Informal Resolution Process, described below. (Section I page 32).

B. Multi-Party Situations

The University may consolidate Formal Complaints alleging Title IX Covered Conduct against more than one Respondent, or by more than one Complainant against one or more Respondents, or by one party against the other party, where the allegations of Title IX Covered Conduct arise out of the same facts or circumstances.

C. Threat Assessment

The Title IX Coordinator will consult, as appropriate, with Campus Security and other campus administrators and determine whether the report poses a threat to the Reporting Party or the University community. Factors to be considered include, but are not limited to, whether alleged Prohibited Conduct included physical violence or threats of violence; whether any weapon or force was allegedly used or threatened; whether multiple Responding Parties were involved; whether Responding Party has a prior history of violent behavior; whether the Prohibited Conduct was facilitated by “date-rape” drugs or similar intoxicants, or allegedly occurred when Reporting Party was unconscious or physically helpless; whether Reporting Party is a minor under the age of 18; and whether any aggravating circumstances or indications of violent or predatory behavior were reported.

The Title IX Coordinator will retain documentation reflecting that the above threat assessment was completed. If the conclusion is that there is a minimal threat to the University community, the Title IX Coordinator may in their discretion respect a Reporting Party’s request for no action and will investigate only so far as necessary to determine appropriate remedies. However, if the Title IX Coordinator concludes that there is a substantial threat to the community, the University reserves the right to initiate this grievance process and file a Formal Complaint without a formal report or participation by a Complainant.
D. Determining Jurisdiction
This Process applies to conduct that occurs in locations, events, or circumstances over which the University exercises substantial control over both the Respondent and the context in which the alleged prohibited conduct occurs, and any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the University.

The Title IX Coordinator will determine if the instant Process should apply to a Formal Complaint. The Process will apply when the Title IX Coordinator determines that all of the following elements are met:

- The conduct is alleged to have occurred on or after August 14, 2020;
- The conduct is alleged to have occurred in the United States;
- The conduct is alleged to have occurred in the University’s education program or activity; and
- The alleged conduct, if true, would constitute Title IX Covered Conduct as defined in this policy.

E. Allegations Potentially Falling Under Two Policies
If the alleged conduct, if true, includes conduct that would constitute Title IX Covered Conduct and conduct that would not constitute Title IX Covered Conduct, the Title IX Grievance Process will be applied in the investigation and adjudication of all of the allegations.

F. Mandatory Dismissal
If anyone of these elements is not met, the Title IX Coordinator will notify the parties that the Formal Complaint is being dismissed for the purposes of the Title IX Grievance Policy. Each party may appeal this dismissal using the procedure outlined in “Appeals,” below.

G. Discretionary Dismissal
The Title IX Coordinator may dismiss a Formal Complaint brought under the Title IX Grievance Policy, or any specific allegations raised within that Formal Complaint, at any time during the investigation or hearing, if:

- A Complainant notifies the Title IX Coordinator in writing that they would like to withdraw the Formal Complaint or any allegations raised in the Formal Complaint;
- The Respondent is no longer enrolled or employed by the University; or,
- If specific circumstances prevent the University from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination regarding the Formal Complaint or allegations within the Formal Complaint.

Any party may appeal a dismissal determination using the process set forth in “Appeals,” below.

H. Notice of Dismissal
Upon reaching a decision that the Formal Complaint will be dismissed, the University will promptly send written notice of the dismissal of the Formal Complaint or any specific allegation within the Formal Complaint and the reason for the dismissal, simultaneously to the parties through their University email accounts. It is the responsibility of parties to maintain and regularly check their email accounts.

I. Informal Resolution
If an Informal Resolution, i.e., supportive and remedial response, is preferred, the Title IX Coordinator works with the Complainant to identify their wishes and then seeks to facilitate implementation. The Formal Resolution process is not initiated, though the Complainant can elect to initiate it later if desired.

The Title IX Coordinator assesses whether the complaint is suitable for Informal Resolution, which informal mechanism may serve the situation best or is available, and may seek to determine if the Respondent is also willing to engage in Informal Resolution.

14 Complaints dismissed under the Title IX Grievance Process may be resolved under the DHSMR Grievance Process.
Statements made during the Informal Resolution process are not evidence; they are made for settlement purposes, not for the truth of the matter asserted. Therefore, if Informal Resolution fails, and the matter moves to Formal Resolution, such statements may not be raised and questions relating to these statements are not allowed.

J. Notice of Investigation and Allegations (NOIA)
The Title IX Coordinator will draft and provide the NOIA to any party to the allegations of sexual harassment. Such notice will occur as soon as practicable, but no more than ten (10) calendar days after the University receives a Formal Complaint of the allegations, barring extenuating circumstances.

The parties will be notified via their University email accounts. If a party is not a student or employee of the University, they will be notified by other reasonable means.

The University will provide sufficient time, no less than three (3) calendar days, for the parties to review the NOIA and prepare a response before any initial interview.

1. Contents of Notice
The Notice of Allegations will include the following:

- Notice of the University’s Title IX Grievance Process, including the Informal Resolution process and possible sanctions that may result.
- Notice of the allegations potentially constituting Title IX Covered Conduct, and sufficient details, known at the time the Notice is issued, such as the identities of the parties involved in the incident; the conduct allegedly constituting Title IX Covered Conduct; and the date and location of the alleged incident.
- A statement that the Respondent is presumed not responsible for the alleged conduct and that a determination regarding responsibility is made at the conclusion of the grievance process.
- A statement that the parties may have an Advisor of their choice, who may be, but is not required to be, an attorney, as required by the Final Title IX Rule.\(^{15}\)
- A statement that before the conclusion of the investigation, the parties may inspect and review evidence as required by the Final Title IX Rule,\(^{16}\) including:
  - Evidence obtained as part of the investigation that is directly related to the allegations raised in the Formal Complaint,
  - Evidence upon which the University does not intend to rely in reaching a determination regarding responsibility, and
  - Evidence that both tend to prove or disprove the allegations, whether obtained from a party or other source.
- A statement about the University’s policy on retaliation.
- A statement that the University prohibits knowingly making false statements or knowingly submitting false information during the grievance process.
- Details on the process for requesting disability accommodations during the interview process.
- A link to the University’s Resources, Rights, and Options document.
- The name(s) of the Investigator(s) and the process for identifying any conflict of interest that the Investigator(s) may have, in advance of the interview process.
- An instruction to preserve any evidence that is related directly to the allegations.

\(^{15}\) See 34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(5)(iv)

\(^{16}\) See 34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(5)(vi).
1. Ongoing Notice

If in the course of an investigation, cause arises for the University to investigate allegations about the Complainant or Respondent not included in the NOIA and that otherwise fall within the Title IX Grievance Process, the University will notify the parties whose identities are known of the additional allegations. Notification will be sent via the parties' University email accounts.

The parties will be provided sufficient time to review the additional allegations to prepare a response before any initial interview regarding those additional charges.

K. Standard of Proof

The University uses the preponderance of the evidence standard for investigations and determinations regarding responsibility of Formal Complaints covered under this Policy. This means that the investigation and hearing determine whether it is more likely than not that a violation of the Policy occurred.

L. Advisors

1. Advisors and Their Role

The parties may have an Advisor of their choice present with them for all meetings and interviews during the grievance process. Advisors should help the parties prepare for each meeting and are expected to advise ethically, with integrity, and in good faith. Advisors are required to follow the University’s Rules of Decorum (see page 62).

The Advisor may be a friend, mentor, family member, attorney17, or any other individual a party chooses to advise, support, and/or consult with them throughout the resolution process. The parties may choose Advisors from inside or outside of the campus community.18

For parties who are entitled to union representation, the University will allow the unionized employee to have their union representative serve as an Advisor during the grievance proceedings, if requested by the party, as well as an additional Advisor of their choice. To uphold the principles of equity, the other party, regardless of union membership, will also be permitted to have two Advisors. Witnesses are not permitted to have union representation or Advisors in grievance process interviews or meetings.

The University may permit parties to have more than one Advisor upon special request to the Title IX Coordinator. The decision to grant this request is at the sole discretion of the Title IX Coordinator and will be granted equitably to all parties.

The Title IX Coordinator will assign a trained Advisor from the Title IX Grievance Process Pool for any party who elects this option or does not have an Advisor. If the parties choose an Advisor from outside the pool, they should note that the Advisor may not be trained and familiar with the University's policies and procedures.

2. Advisors in Hearings and University-Appointed Advisors

Under the Final Title IX Rule, cross-examination is required during a live hearing and must be conducted by the parties’ Advisors. The parties are not permitted to directly cross-examine each other or any

17 The University does not guarantee equal Advisory rights; if one party selects an Advisor who is an attorney, but the other party does not or cannot afford an attorney, the University is not obligated to provide an attorney.

18 Choosing an Advisor who is also a witness in the process creates potential for bias and conflict-of-interest. A party who chooses an Advisor who is also a witness can anticipate that issues of potential bias will be explored by the Hearing Officer or Panel.
witnesses.

If a party does not have an Advisor for a hearing, the University will appoint a trained Advisor for the limited purpose of conducting any cross-examination. A party may reject this appointment and choose their own Advisor, but they may not proceed without an Advisor.

If the party’s Advisor will not conduct cross-examination, the University will appoint an Advisor who will do so, regardless of the participation or non-participation of the Party in the hearing.

3. Scheduling Advisors
The University will not intentionally schedule meetings or hearings on dates where the Advisors of Choice for all parties are not available, provided that the Advisors act reasonably in providing available dates and work collegially to find dates and times that meet all schedules.

The University will not be obligated to delay a meeting or hearing under this process more than five (5) days due to the unavailability of an Advisor of Choice and may offer the party the opportunity to obtain a different Advisor of Choice or utilize one provided by the University to avoid delay.

M. Notice of Meetings and Interviews
The University will provide, to a party whose participation is invited or expected, written notice of the date, time, location, participants, and purpose of all hearings, investigative interviews, or other meetings, with sufficient time for the party to prepare to participate.

N. Delays
Each party may request a one-time delay in the Grievance Process of up to five (5) days for good cause. The extension will be granted or denied in the sole judgment of the Title IX Coordinator provided that the requestor provides reasonable notice, and the delay does not overly inconvenience other parties.

O. Investigation
1. General Rules of Investigations
The Title IX Coordinator, Deputy Title IX Coordinators, or an Investigator designated by the Title IX Coordinator will perform an investigation under a reasonably prompt timeframe of the conduct alleged to constitute Title IX Covered Conduct after issuing the Notice of Allegations.

The University, and not the parties, has the burden of proof and the burden of gathering evidence. This burden does not rest with either party, and either party may decide not to share their account of what occurred or may decide not to participate in an investigation or hearing. This does not shift the burden of proof away from the University and does not indicate responsibility.

The University cannot access, consider, or disclose medical records without a waiver from the party (or parent, if applicable) to whom the records belong or of whom the records include information.

The University will provide an equal opportunity for the parties to present witnesses, including fact and expert witnesses, and inculpatory and exculpatory evidence, as described below.

19 The responsibility of showing a violation of this Policy occurred rests upon the University.
20 At the parties own expense.
21 Inculpatory evidence tends to prove allegations while exculpatory evidence tend to excuse, justify or absolve conduct.
2. Relevant evidence and questions

“Relevant” evidence and questions refer to any questions and evidence that tends to make an allegation of sexual harassment more or less likely to be true. “Relevant” evidence and questions do not include the following types of evidence and questions, which are deemed “irrelevant” at all stages of the Title IX Grievance Process:

- Evidence and questions about the Complainant’s sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior unless:
  - They are offered to prove that someone other than the Respondent committed the conduct alleged by the Complainant, or
  - They concern specific incidents of the Complainant’s prior sexual behavior with respect to the Respondent and are offered to prove consent.
- Evidence and questions that constitute, or seek disclosure of, information protected under a legally-recognized privilege.
- Any party’s medical, psychological, and similar records unless the party has given voluntary, written consent.

2. Inspection and Review of Investigative Report and Evidence

Prior to the completion of the investigation, the parties will have an equal opportunity to inspect and review the evidence obtained through the investigation. The purpose of the inspection and review process is to allow each party an equal opportunity to meaningfully respond to the evidence prior to the conclusion of the investigation.

Evidence that will be available for inspection and review by the parties will be any evidence that is directly related to the allegations raised in the Formal Complaint. It will include any:

a) Evidence that is relevant, even if that evidence does not end up being relied upon by the University in making a determination regarding responsibility;

b) Inculpatory or exculpatory evidence that is directly related to the allegations, whether obtained from a party or other source.

All parties must submit any evidence they would like the Investigator to consider during the course of the investigation prior to when the parties are scheduled to inspect and review evidence.

c) The Investigative Report

The Title IX Coordinator, Deputy Title IX Coordinators, or an Investigator designated by the Title IX Coordinator will create an Investigative Report that fairly summarizes relevant evidence and will provide that Report and evidence to the parties at least fifteen (15) calendar days prior the hearing for the parties’ review and written response.

The purpose of the Investigative Report is to provide a fair summary of that evidence and not intended to catalog all evidence obtained by the Investigator.

Only relevant evidence (including both inculpatory and exculpatory – i.e., tending to prove and disprove the allegations - relevant evidence) will be referenced in the Investigative Report.

The Investigator may redact irrelevant information from the Investigative Report when that information is contained in documents or evidence that are otherwise relevant.

The University will provide a draft investigative report and all evidence, in the form of exhibits, via email, to the parties and their Advisors. The University is not under an obligation to use any specific process or technology to provide the evidence and shall have the sole discretion in terms of determining the format and any restrictions or limitations on access.

The parties will have ten (10) calendar days to inspect and review the draft Investigation Report and the evidence and submit a written response by email to the Investigator. The Investigator will consider the parties’ written responses before completing the Investigative Report. The University will provide copies of the parties’ written responses to the Investigator to all parties and their Advisors if any.24

If there is no response within the 10-day period, the Investigator will immediately generate the final Investigative Report and evidence and distribute simultaneously, via email, to the parties. When the parties submit a written response to the Investigator, the Investigator has ten (10) calendar days after receipt of the responses to generate the Final Investigative Report. Alternatively, if necessary, the Investigator may provide the parties with written notice extending the investigation and explaining the reason for the extension.

Any evidence subject to inspection and review will be available at the hearing for purposes of cross-examination.

The parties and their Advisors must sign an agreement not to disseminate any of the evidence subject to inspection and review or use such evidence for any purpose unrelated to the Title IX grievance process. Additionally, the parties and their Advisors agree not to photograph or otherwise copy the evidence. 25

4. Inclusion of Evidence Not Directly Related to the Allegations

Evidence obtained in the investigation that is determined in the reasoned judgment of the Investigator not to be directly related to the allegations in the Formal Complaint will not be disclosed or may be appropriately redacted before the parties’ inspection to avoid disclosure of personally identifiable information of a student. Any evidence obtained in the investigation that is kept from disclosure or appropriately redacted will be documented in a “privilege log” that may be reviewed by the parties and their Advisors if any.26

P. Hearings

General Rules of Hearings

The University will not issue a disciplinary sanction arising from an allegation of Title IX Covered Conduct without holding a live hearing unless otherwise resolved through an Informal Resolution process.

The live hearing may be conducted with all parties physically present in the same geographic location, or, at the University’s discretion, any or all parties, witnesses, and other participants may appear at the live hearing virtually. This technology will enable participants simultaneously to see and hear each other. At its discretion, the University may delay or adjourn a hearing based on technological errors, not within a party’s control.

All proceedings will be recorded through audiovisual recording. That recording will be made available to the parties for inspection and review.

Prior to obtaining access to any evidence, the parties and their Advisors must sign an agreement not to disseminate any of the testimony heard or evidence obtained in the hearing or use such testimony or evidence for any purpose unrelated to the Title IX Grievance Process. Once signed, this Agreement may not be withdrawn.27

1. Notice of Hearing The Hearing Officer or Panel will send a Notice of Hearing to the Parties at least seven (7) calendar days before the scheduled hearing date. Accelerated hearing dates may be scheduled with the consent of the Parties, and Hearing Officer or Panel. The Notice once sent, is presumed to have been delivered.

2. Continuances or Granting Extensions
   The University may determine that multiple sessions or a continuance (i.e., a pause on the continuation of the hearing until a later date or time) is needed to complete a hearing. If so, the University will notify all participants and endeavor to accommodate all participants’ schedules and complete the hearing as promptly as practicable.

3. Participants in the live hearing
   Live hearings are not public, and the only individuals permitted to participate in the hearing are as follows:
   a) Complainant and Respondent (The Parties)
      (1) The parties cannot waive the right to a live hearing.
      (2) The University may still proceed with the live hearing in the absence of a party, and may reach a determination of responsibility in their absence, including through any evidence gathered that does not constitute a “statement” by that party.28
      (3) The University will not threaten, coerce, intimidate or discriminate against the party in an attempt to secure the party’s participation.29
      (4) If a party does not submit to cross-examination, the decision-maker cannot rely on any prior statements made by that party in reaching a determination regarding responsibility but may reach a determination regarding responsibility based on evidence that does not constitute a “statement” by that party.
      (5) The decision-maker cannot draw an inference about the determination regarding responsibility based solely on a party’s absence from the live hearing or refusal to answer cross-examination or other questions.30
      (6) The parties shall be subject to the University’s Rules of Decorum (see page 62).

28 See, 85 Fed. Reg. 30026, 30361 (May 19, 2020). For example, a verbal or written statement constituting part or all of the sexual harassment itself is not a “prior statement” that must be excluded if the maker of the statement does not submit to cross-examination about that statement. In other words, a prior statement would not include a document, audio recording, audiovisual reading, and digital media, including but not limited to text messages, emails, and social media postings, that constitute the conduct alleged to have been the act of sexual harassment under the Formal Complaint. b) The Hearing Officer or Panel
   (1) One to three Hearing Officer(s) may preside over the hearings.
   (1) No Hearing Officer will also have served as the Title IX Coordinator, Title IX Investigator, or Advisor to any party in the case, nor may any member of the hearing body serve on the appeals body in the case.
   (2) No Hearing Officer will have a conflict of interest or bias in favor of or against Complainants or Respondents generally or in favor of or against the parties to the particular case.
   (3) The Hearing Officers will be trained on topics including how to serve impartially, issues of relevance, including how to apply the rape shield protections provided for Complainants, and any technology to be used at the hearing.
   (4) The parties will have an opportunity to raise any objections regarding a Hearing Officer’s actual or perceived conflicts of interest or bias at the commencement of the live hearing.

c) Advisor of choice
   (1) The parties have the right to select an Advisor of their choice, who may be, but does not have to be, an attorney.
   (2) The Advisor of choice may accompany the parties to any meeting or hearing they are permitted to attend, but may not speak for the party, except for the purpose of cross-examination.
   (3) In addition to selecting an Advisor to conduct cross-examination, the parties may select an Advisor who may accompany the parties to any meeting or hearing they are permitted to attend, but may not speak for the party.
   (4) The parties are not permitted to conduct cross-examinations themselves. Cross-examinations must be conducted by the Advisor. If a party does not select an Advisor, the University will select an Advisor to serve in this role for the limited purpose of conducting the cross-examination at no fee or charge to the party.
   (5) The Advisor is not prohibited from having a conflict of interest or bias in favor of or against Complainants or Respondents generally, or in favor of or against the parties to the particular case.
   (6) The Advisor is not prohibited from being a witness in the matter.
   (7) If a party does not attend the live hearing, the party’s Advisor may appear and conduct cross-examination on their behalf.
   (8) If neither a party nor their Advisor appears at the hearing, the University will provide an Advisor to appear on behalf of the non-appearing party.
   (9) Advisors shall be subject to the University’s Rules of Decorum and may be removed upon violation of those Rules (see page 62).

d) Witnesses

Witnesses cannot be compelled to participate in the live hearing, and have the right not to participate in the hearing free from retaliation.

---

If a witness does not submit to cross-examination, as described below, the decision-maker cannot rely on any statements made by that witness in reaching a determination regarding responsibility, including any statement relayed by the absent witness to a witness or party who testifies at the live hearing.\(^{34}\)

Witnesses shall be subject to the University’s Rules of Decorum (see page 62).

4. Hearing Procedures
For all live hearings conducted under this Title IX Grievance Process, the procedure will be as follows:

a) The Hearing Officer or Panel Chair will open and establish rules and expectations for the hearing;

b) The Parties will each be given the opportunity to provide opening statements;

c) The Hearing Officer or Panel will ask questions of the Parties and Witnesses;

d) Parties will be given the opportunity for live cross-examination after the Hearing Officer or Panel conduct their initial round of questioning; During the Parties’ cross-examination, the Hearing Officer or Panel will have the authority to pause cross-examination at any time for the purposes of asking follow up questions; and to enforce the established rules of decorum.

e) Should a Party or the Party’s Advisor choose not to cross-examine a Party or Witness, the Party shall affirmatively waive cross-examination through a written or oral statement to the Hearing Officer or Panel. A Party’s waiver of cross-examination does not eliminate the ability of the Hearing Officer or Panel to use statements made by the Party.

5. Live Cross-Examination Procedure
Each party’s Advisor will conduct live cross-examination of the other party(ies) and witnesses. During this live cross-examination, the Advisor will ask the other party(ies) and witnesses relevant questions and follow-up questions, including those challenging credibility. These questions will be asked directly, orally, and in real time.

Before any cross-examination question is answered, the Hearing Officer or Panel will determine if the question is relevant. Cross-examination questions that are duplicative of those already asked, including by the Hearing Officer or Panel, may be deemed irrelevant if they have been asked and answered.

6. Review of Recording
The recording of the hearing will be available for review by the parties within five (5) calendar days, unless there are any extenuating circumstances.

7. General Considerations for Evaluating Testimony and Evidence
While the opportunity for cross-examination is required in all Title IX hearings, determinations regarding responsibility may be based in part, or entirely, on documentary, audiovisual, and digital evidence, as warranted in the reasoned judgment of the Hearing Officer or Panel.

The Hearing Officer or Panel shall not draw inferences regarding a party or witness’ credibility based on the party or witness’ status as a Complainant, Respondent, or witness, nor shall it base its judgments in stereotypes about how a party or witness would or should act under the circumstances.

Generally, credibility judgments should rest on the demeanor of the party or witness, the plausibility of their testimony, the consistency of their testimony, and its reliability in light of corroborating or conflicting testimony or evidence. Still, credibility judgments should not rest on whether a party or witness’ testimony is non-linear or incomplete, or if the party or witness is displaying stress or anxiety.

The Hearing Officer or Panel will afford the highest weight relative to other testimony to first-hand testimony by parties and witnesses regarding their own memory of specific facts that occurred. Both inculpatory and exculpatory (i.e., tending to prove and disprove the allegations) evidence will be weighed in equal fashion.

Except where specifically barred by the Final Title IX Rule, a witness’ testimony regarding third-party knowledge of the facts at issue will be allowed, but will generally be accorded lower weight than testimony regarding direct knowledge of specific facts that occurred.

The Final Title IX Rule requires that the University allow parties to call “expert witnesses”\(^{35}\) for direct and cross-examination. The University does not provide for expert witnesses in other proceedings. While the expert witness will be allowed to testify and be crossed as required by the Final Title IX Rule, the Hearing Officer or Panel will afford lower weight to non-factual testimony of the expert relative to fact witnesses. Any expert testimony that is not directed to the specific facts that occurred in the case will be afforded lower weight relative to fact witnesses, regardless of whether the expert witness testimony is the subject of cross-examination and regardless of whether all parties present experts as witnesses.

The Final Title IX Rule requires that the University allow parties to call character witnesses to testify. While the character witnesses will be allowed to testify and be crossed as required by the Final Rule, the Hearing Officer or Panel will afford very low weight to any non-factual character testimony of any witness.

The Final Title IX Rule requires that the University admit and allow testimony regarding polygraph tests (“lie detector tests”) and other procedures that are outside of standard use in academic and non-academic conduct processes. While testimony about them will be allowed and cross-examination, as required by the Final Title IX Rule, will be allowed, the Hearing Officer or Panel will afford lower weight to such processes relative to the testimony of fact witnesses.

Where a party or witness’ conduct or statements demonstrate that the party or witness is engaging in retaliatory conduct, including but not limited to witness tampering and intimidation, the Hearing Officer or Panel may draw an adverse inference as to that party or witness’ credibility.

8. Components of the Determination Regarding Responsibility
The written Determination Regarding Responsibility will be issued simultaneously to all parties through their University email account, or other reasonable means as necessary. The Determination will include:

\[\text{a) Identification of the allegations potentially constituting Title IX Covered Conduct;}\] \[\text{b) A description of the procedural steps taken from the receipt of the Formal Complaint through the determination, including any notifications to the parties, interviews with parties and witnesses, site visits, methods used to gather other evidence, and hearings held;}\] \[\text{c) Findings of fact supporting the determination;}\]

\(^{35}\) Expert witnesses may be called at the parties’ expense.
Conclusions regarding which section of the [Code of Conduct], if any, the Respondent has or has not violated.

For each allegation:
(1) A statement of, and rationale for, a determination regarding responsibility;
(2) A statement of, and rationale for, any disciplinary sanctions the University imposes on the Respondent; and
(3) A statement of, and rationale for, whether remedies designed to restore or preserve equal access to the University’s education program or activity will be provided by the University to the Complainant; and
(4) The University’s procedures and the permitted reasons for the Complainant and Respondent to appeal (described below in “Appeals”).

Q. Timeline of Determination Regarding Responsibility
If there are no extenuating circumstances, the determination regarding responsibility will be issued by the University within ten (10) calendar days of the completion of the hearing.

R. Finality
The determination regarding responsibility becomes final either on the date that the University provides the parties with the written determination of the result of the appeal, if an appeal is filed consistent with the procedures and timeline outlined in “Appeals” below, or if an appeal is not filed, the date on which the opportunity to appeal expires.

S. Appeals
Each party may appeal (1) the dismissal of a Formal Complaint or any included allegations and/or (2) a determination regarding responsibility. A party must submit their written appeal within five (5) calendar days of being notified of the decision, indicating the grounds for the appeal.

The limited grounds for appeal available are as follows:
1. Procedural irregularity that affected the outcome of the matter (i.e., a failure to follow the University’s own procedures);
2. New evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made that could affect the outcome of the matter;
3. The Title IX Coordinator, Investigator(s), or decision-maker(s) had a conflict of interest or bias for or against an individual party, or for or against Complainants or Respondents in general, that affected the outcome of the matter.

The submission of an appeal stays any sanctions for the pendency of an appeal. Supportive measures and remote learning opportunities remain available during the pendency of the appeal.

If a party appeals, the University will notify the other party in writing of the appeal as soon as practicable. The time for an appeal shall be offered equitably to all parties and shall not be extended for any party solely because the other party filed an appeal.

Appeals may be no longer than three (3) pages (including attachments). Appeals should be submitted in electronic form using ARIAL or TIMES NEW ROMAN, 12 point font, and single-spaced. Appeals should use footnotes, not endnotes. Appeals that do not meet these standards may be returned to the party for correction, but the time for appeal will not be extended unless there is evidence that technical malfunction caused the appeal document not to meet these standards.
Appeals will be decided by Appeals Officers as follows:

- If the Respondent is a student: the Dean of Students, or their designee.
- If the Respondent is a faculty or staff member: The Provost, or their designee.

Appeals Officers will be free of conflict of interest and bias, and will not have served as Investigator, Title IX Coordinator, or Hearing Officer in the same matter.

The outcome of the appeal will be provided in writing simultaneously to both parties, and include the rationale for the decision.

T. Confidentiality
The University will keep the following identities confidential except as permitted by the FERPA statute and regulations, the Final Title IX Rule, or as required by law:

- Any individual who has made a report or complaint of sex discrimination,
- Any individual who has made a report or filed a Formal Complaint of sexual harassment under this Policy, any Complainant,
- Any individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of sex discrimination, any Respondent, and
- Any witness.

U. Retaliation
No person may intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 or its implementing regulations.

No person may intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual because the individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this Title IX Grievance Policy.

Any intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination, for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX or its implementing regulations, constitutes retaliation. This includes any charges filed against an individual for code of conduct violations that do not involve sex discrimination or sexual harassment, but that arise from the same facts or circumstances as a report or complaint of sex discrimination or a report or Formal Complaint of sexual harassment.

Complaints alleging retaliation may be filed according to the DHSMR Grievance Process, described below.
DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, SEXUAL MISCONDUCT, AND RETALIATION (DHSMR) GRIEVANCE PROCESS

A. Application of Process
This Process is applicable to cases of discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct or retaliation when the Title IX Coordinator determines that the Title IX Grievance Process above, is inapplicable because the alleged conduct falls outside of Title IX Covered Sexual Harassment, or when offenses subject to Title IX Grievance Process have been dismissed. The Title IX Grievance Process must be applied when applicable. This Process applies to all allegations of harassment or discrimination on the basis of protected class status involving students, staff, faculty members, or third parties.

B. Initial Assessment
Following receipt of any formal or informal notice of allegation of violation of the Policy, the Title IX Coordinator engages in an initial assessment, one (1) to five (5) calendar days in duration. The steps in an initial assessment may include:

1. The Title IX Coordinator reaches out to the Complainant to offer supportive measures.36
2. The Title IX Coordinator works with the Complainant to ensure they have an Advisor.
3. The Title IX Coordinator works with the Complainant to determine whether the Complainant prefers an Informal or Formal Resolution. The process followed considers the preference of the parties but is ultimately determined at the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator. At any point during the initial assessment or formal investigation, if the Title IX Coordinator determines that reasonable cause does not support the conclusion that policy has been violated, the process will end, and the parties will be notified.

Based on the initial assessment, the University will initiate either the Informal Resolution Process or the Formal Resolution Process.

a) If an Informal Resolution, i.e., supportive and remedial response, is preferred, the Title IX Coordinator works with the Complainant to identify their wishes and then seeks to facilitate implementation. The Formal Resolution process is not initiated, though the Complainant can elect to initiate it later if desired.

b) The Title IX Coordinator assesses whether the complaint is suitable for Informal Resolution, which informal mechanism may serve the situation best or is available, and may seek to determine if the Respondent is also willing to engage in Informal Resolution.

c) Statements made during the Informal Resolution process are not evidence; they are made for settlement purposes, not for the truth of the matter asserted. Therefore, if Informal Resolution fails, and the matter moves to Formal Resolution, such statements may not be raised and questions relating to these statements are not allowed.

d) If Formal Resolution is preferred, the Title IX Coordinator initiates the investigation process and determines whether the scope of the investigation will address:

   (1) Incident, and/or
   (2) A potential pattern of misconduct and/or
   (3) A culture/climate issue.

36 Supportive Measures may include, but are not limited to, referral to counseling and health services, referral to the Employee Assistance Program, education to the community, permanent alteration of housing assignments, permanent alteration of work arrangements, as limited by law, provision of campus safety escorts, climate surveys, policy modification, provision of transportation accommodations, implementation of long-term contact limitations between the parties, and implementation of adjustments to academic deadlines, course schedules.
C. Threat Assessment

The Title IX Coordinator will consult, as appropriate, with Campus Security and other campus administrators and determine whether the report poses a threat to the Reporting Party or the University community. Factors to be considered include, but are not limited to, whether alleged Prohibited Conduct included physical violence or threats of violence; whether any weapon or force was allegedly used or threatened; whether multiple Responding Parties were involved; whether Responding Party has a prior history of violent behavior; whether the Prohibited Conduct was facilitated by “date-rape” drugs or similar intoxicants, or allegedly occurred when Reporting Party was unconscious or physically helpless; whether Reporting Party is a minor under the age of 18; and whether any aggravating circumstances or indications of violent or predatory behavior were reported.

The Title IX Coordinator will retain documentation reflecting that the above threat assessment was completed. If the conclusion is that there is a minimal threat to the University community, the Title IX Coordinator may in their discretion respect a Reporting Party’s request for no action and will investigate only so far as necessary to determine appropriate remedies. However, if the Title IX Coordinator concludes that there is a substantial threat to the community, the University reserves the right to initiate this grievance process and file a Formal Complaint without a formal report or participation by a Complainant.

D. Grievance Process Pool

The Formal Resolution process relies on a Grievance Process Pool ("GPP") of internal and/or external members who, at the direction of the Title IX Coordinator, may serve as Advisors, Investigators, and/or Hearing Officers.

The Title IX Coordinator, in consultation with the President, carefully vets internal Pool members for potential conflicts of interest or disqualifying biases and appoints the Pool, which acts with independence and impartiality.

Internal Pool members receive annual training organized by the Title IX Coordinator, including a review of the University’s policies, processes, and procedures, as well as applicable federal and state laws and regulations.37

External Pool members are trained and experienced consultants who are free of conflicts-of-interest and are familiar with the University’s discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, and retaliation grievance processes.

E. Counterclaims

Counterclaims by the Respondent may be made in good faith but are also sometimes made for purposes of retaliation. The University is obligated to ensure that any process is not abused for retaliatory purposes. Counterclaims made in bad faith will be considered retaliatory and may constitute a violation of this Policy.

The University permits the filing of counterclaims, but uses the initial assessment, described above, to assess whether the allegations are made in good faith. Counterclaims made in good faith are processed using this Process after the underlying allegation has been resolved. Allegations and counterclaims may be resolved through the same investigation at the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator.

F. Advisors

1. Expectations of an Advisor

The University generally expects an Advisor to adjust their schedule to allow them to attend University

37 Grievance Process Pool members also receive training that includes, but is not limited to: conducting impartial and thorough investigations, checking implicit bias, reporting, confidentiality, and privacy requirements, weighing evidence, assessing credibility, evidence, and relevance.
meetings when planned, but the University may change scheduled meetings to accommodate an Advisor’s inability to attend if doing so does not cause an unreasonable delay.

The University may also make reasonable provisions to allow an Advisor who cannot attend in person to attend a meeting by telephone, video conferencing, or other similar technologies as may be convenient and available.

Parties whose Advisors are disruptive or who do not abide by University policies and rules of decorum may face the loss of that Advisor and possible Policy violations.

Advisors are expected to consult with their advisees without disrupting University meetings or interviews. Advisors do not represent parties in the process; their role is only to advise.

2. Expectations of the Parties with Respect to Advisors
Each party may choose an Advisor who is eligible and available to accompany them throughout the process. The Advisor can be anyone, including an attorney, but should not be someone who is also a witness in the process. A party may elect to change Advisors during the process and is not obligated to use the same Advisor throughout.

The parties are expected to inform the Investigators of the identity of their Advisor at least two (2) business days before the date of their first meeting with the Investigator(s).

The parties are expected to provide timely notice to the Investigator(s) and the Title IX Coordinator if they change Advisors at any time.

Upon written request of a party, the University will copy the Advisor on all communications between the University and the party. The Advisor may be asked to sign a non-disclosure agreement (NDA) regarding private, sensitive records.

For parties who are entitled to union representation, the University will allow the unionized employee to have their union representative, if requested by the party, as well as an Advisor of their choice, present for all grievance proceedings. To uphold the principles of equity, the other party, regardless of union membership, will also be permitted to have two Advisors. Witnesses are not permitted to have union representation or Advisors in grievance process interviews or meetings.

At the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator, the parties may each have more than one Advisor. If one party is allowed an additional Advisor, the other party must be allowed an additional one as well.

3. Assistance in Securing an Advisor
While the Parties may select an Advisor of their choice, the University can assist with providing an Advisor at the Party’s request. Please see the Resources, Rights, and Options document for a list of support.

G. Resolution Options
Grievance Proceedings are private; all individuals present at any time during the resolution process are expected to maintain the privacy of the proceedings in accordance with University Policy. While there is an expectation of privacy around what is discussed during interviews, the parties have the discretion to share their own experiences with others if they so choose, but are encouraged to discuss with their Advisors first before doing so.
1. Informal Resolution

Informal Resolution is applicable when the parties voluntarily agree to resolve the matter through Alternate Resolution (i.e., mediation, restorative practices, etc.), or when the Respondent accepts responsibility for violating Policy, or when the Title IX Coordinator can resolve the matter informally by providing remedies to resolve the situation.

Any party participating in Informal Resolution can stop the process at any time and request the Formal Resolution process. Further, if an Informal Resolution fails, Formal Resolution may be pursued.

a) Alternate Resolution

Alternate Resolution is an informal process, such as mediation or restorative practices, by which a mutually agreed-upon resolution of an allegation is reached. It may be used for less serious, yet inappropriate, behaviors and is encouraged as an alternative to the Formal Resolution process (described below) to resolve conflicts. The parties must consent to the use of Alternate Resolution.

The Title IX Coordinator determines if Alternate Resolution is appropriate, based on the willingness of the parties, the nature of the conduct at issue, and the susceptibility of the conduct to Alternate Resolution.

In an Alternate Resolution meeting, a trained administrator facilitates a dialogue with the parties to an effective resolution, if possible. The parties may agree to accepted sanctions or appropriate remedies.

The Title IX Coordinator maintains records of any resolution that is reached, and failure to abide by the resolution can result in appropriate enforcement actions.

Alternate Resolution is not typically the primary resolution mechanism used to address reports of violent behavior of any kind or in other cases of serious violations of policy, though it may be made available after the Formal Resolution process is completed should the parties and the Title IX Coordinator believe it could be beneficial. The results of Alternate Resolution are not appealable.

b) Respondent Accepts Responsibility for Alleged Violations

The Respondent may accept responsibility for all or part of the alleged policy violations at any point during the resolution process. If the Respondent accepts responsibility, the Title IX Coordinator makes a determination that the individual is in violation of University Policy.

The Title IX Coordinator then determines appropriate sanction(s) or responsive actions, which are implemented promptly in order to effectively stop the discrimination, harassment, sexual misconduct, or retaliation; prevent its recurrence; and remedy the effects of the conduct, both on the Complainant and the community.

The process ends when the Respondent accepts responsibility for all of the alleged policy violations, and the Title IX Coordinator determines and promptly implements appropriate sanction(s) or responsive actions. The Title IX Coordinator will inform the Complainant of this outcome.

When the Respondent accepts responsibility for some of the alleged policy violations, the Title IX Coordinator will determine and promptly implement appropriate sanction(s) or responsive actions, for those violations. The remaining allegations will continue to be investigated and resolved. The Title IX Coordinator will inform the Complainant of this outcome. The parties are able to seek Alternate Resolution on the remaining allegations, subject to the stipulations above.

c) Negotiated Resolution

The Title IX Coordinator, with the consent of the parties, may negotiate and implement any agreement to resolve the allegations that satisfies all parties and the University.

2. Formal Resolution

Formal Resolution can be pursued for any alleged violation of this Policy for which the Respondent has not accepted responsibility. Formal Resolution starts with a thorough, reliable, and impartial investigation.

H. Investigation

The investigation will be a neutral, fact-finding process, and Respondent is presumed at the outset not to be responsible. This presumption may be overcome where the Investigator and Hearing Officer or Panel determine that there is sufficient evidence supporting responsibility. The Parties are encouraged but are not required to cooperate with the investigation and hearing. The Parties will have an equal opportunity to be heard, to submit information, to identify witnesses, and to suggest questions.

The Investigator will interview the Parties and any third party witnesses separately, and gather all available evidence, including email, text messages, social media communication, etc., as well as any photographs or medical records.

If a Formal Resolution is initiated, the Title IX Coordinator will provide written Notice of Investigation and Allegations to the parties. Typically, notice is given at least two (2) days in advance of an interview.

1. Notice of Investigation and Allegations (NOIA)

The Title IX Coordinator or Investigator will draft and provide the NOIA to the parties. Such notice will occur as soon as practicable, but no more than ten (10) calendar days after the University receives a Formal Complaint of the allegations, barring extenuating circumstances.

The parties will be notified via their University email accounts. Once emailed, notice is presumptively delivered. If a party is not a student or employee of the University, they will be notified by other reasonable means.

The University will provide sufficient time, no less than three (3) calendar days, for the parties to review the NOIA and prepare a response before any initial interview.

The Notice will include the University’s Policy; a meaningful summary of the allegations and policy provision alleged to be violated; a statement of potential sanctions; a statement that the parties may have an Advisor of their choice; a statement about the University’s policy on retaliation; a statement that the University prohibits knowingly making false statements; details on the process for requesting disability accommodations during the interview process; an instruction to the parties to preserve any evidence that is directly related to the allegations, and a link to the University’s Resources, Rights, and Options document.

Investigators will update the NOIA as necessary and provide it to the parties.
2. Other Misconduct

With the agreement of the Student Conduct Officer, Human Resources Director, or Provost, as applicable, allegations of misconduct that fall outside this policy but involves common facts as the alleged Prohibited Conduct, will be investigated together under this Process.

3. Timeframes

The timeframe for completion of this Grievance Process, from the receipt of notice or complaint until final determination, will be concluded promptly, and will not exceed ninety (90) calendar days. The Process may be extended for a good reason.

Investigations are completed expeditiously, normally within 10-20 business days, though some investigations take weeks or even months, depending on the nature, extent, and complexity of the allegations, availability of witnesses, police involvement, etc.

The University will make a good faith effort to complete investigations as promptly as circumstances permit and will communicate regularly with the parties to update them on the progress and timing of the investigation.

The University may undertake a short delay in its investigation (several days to weeks, to allow evidence collection) when criminal charges based on the same behaviors that invoke the University’s Grievance Process are being investigated by law enforcement. The University will promptly resume its investigation and resolution process once notified by law enforcement that the initial evidence collection process is complete. University action(s) are not typically altered or precluded on the grounds that civil or criminal charges involving the underlying incident(s) have been filed or that criminal charges have been dismissed or reduced.

4. Investigators

Once the decision is made to commence an investigation, the Title IX Coordinator appoints Pool members to conduct the investigation (typically using a team of two Investigators), usually within two (2) days of determining that an investigation should proceed.

The Title IX Coordinator will vet the assigned Investigator(s) to ensure impartiality by ensuring there are no conflicts of interest or disqualifying bias.

During the Formal Resolution Process, the parties may raise a concern regarding bias or conflict of interest at any time. The Title IX Coordinator will determine whether the concern is reasonable and supportable and, if so, will assign another Investigator to remedy the impact of the bias or conflict. If the bias or conflict relates to the Title IX Coordinator, concerns should be raised with the President of the University.

5. Investigation Process

Investigations involve interviews with all relevant parties and witnesses, obtaining available, relevant evidence, and identifying sources of expert information, as necessary.

All parties have a full and fair opportunity, through the investigation process, to suggest witnesses and questions, to provide evidence, and to fully review and respond to all evidence, on the record.

The Investigators commence a thorough, reliable, and impartial investigation by developing a strategic investigation plan, including a witness list, evidence list, intended investigation timeframe, and order of interviews for all parties and witnesses

6. Witness responsibilities
Witnesses (as distinguished from the parties) who are faculty or staff of the University are expected to cooperate with and participate in the University’s investigation and resolution process. Failure of a witness to cooperate with and/or participate in the investigation or resolution process constitutes a violation of Policy and may be subject to discipline.

7. Remote processes
Parties and witnesses may be interviewed remotely by phone, video conferencing, or similar technologies if the Investigator(s) or Hearing Officer or Panel determines that timeliness or efficiency dictates a need for remote interviewing. Witnesses may also provide written statements in lieu of interviews, or respond to questions in writing if deemed appropriate by the Investigator(s), though this approach is not ideal. Where remote technologies are used, the University makes reasonable efforts to ensure privacy, and that any technology does not work to the detriment of any party or subject them to unfairness.

8. Recording
No unauthorized audio or video recording of any kind is permitted during the resolution process. If Investigator(s) elect to record interviews, all involved parties must be made aware of the recording.

9. Evidence
Any evidence that is relevant and credible may be considered, including an individual’s prior misconduct history as well as evidence indicating a pattern of misconduct. The process should exclude irrelevant or immaterial evidence and may disregard evidence lacking in credibility, or that is improperly prejudicial.

10. Sexual history/patterns
Unless the Title IX Coordinator determines it is appropriate, the investigation and the finding do not consider (1) incidents not directly related to the possible violation, unless they evidence a pattern; (2) the sexual history of the parties (though there may be a limited exception made with regard to the sexual history between the parties); or (3) the character of the parties.

11. Previous allegations/violations
While previous conduct violations by the Respondent are not generally admissible as information supporting the current allegation, the Investigator(s) may supply the Title IX Coordinator with information about previous good faith allegations and/or findings, when that information suggests potential pattern and/or predatory conduct.

Previous disciplinary action of any kind involving the Respondent may be considered in determining the appropriate sanction(s) if the University uses a progressive discipline system.

12. Character witnesses
Neither the Title IX Coordinator nor the Investigator(s) meets with character witnesses, but the Investigator(s) may accept up to two (2) letters supporting the character of each of the parties. Such letters must be provided to the Investigator(s) prior to the report being finalized; otherwise, the parties have waived their right to provide such letters.
13. Investigative Report

At the completion of the investigation, the Investigator will draft a comprehensive investigatory report fully summarizing the investigation and all evidence. The Investigator will share the report with the Title IX Coordinator for review and feedback and provide parties with a copy of the draft report, including all relevant evidence, analysis, credibility assessments, and recommended finding(s) via email.

The parties will have ten (10) calendar days to inspect and review the draft Investigation Report and the evidence and submit a written response by email to the Investigator. The Investigator will consider the parties’ written responses before completing the Investigative Report. The University will provide copies of the parties’ written responses to the Investigator to all parties and their Advisors if any.

If there is no response within the 10-day period, the Investigator will immediately generate the Final Investigative Report and evidence and distribute simultaneously, via email, to the parties. When the parties submit a written response to the Investigator, the Investigator has ten (10) calendar days after receipt of the responses to generate the Final Investigative Report. Alternatively, if necessary, the Investigator may provide the parties with written notice extending the investigation and explaining the reason for the extension.

I. Hearing

1. General Rules of Hearings

After a Formal Resolution Investigation, the Investigative Report is sent to the Hearing Officer or Panel. Within two to three days of receiving the Investigative Report, the Hearing Officer or Panel will review the report and all responses, if any, and arrange a hearing to allow the parties an opportunity to present. The University will not threaten, coerce, intimidate or discriminate against the party in an attempt to secure the party’s participation in the hearing. The Parties may opt to waive the hearing. If all parties opt to waive the hearing, the process will divert directly to the Hearing Officer or Panel for determination.

Live hearings may be conducted with all parties physically present in the same geographic location, or, at the University’s discretion, any or all parties, witnesses, and other participants may appear at the live hearing virtually. This technology will enable participants simultaneously to see and hear each other. At its discretion, the University may delay or adjourn a hearing based on technological errors, not within a party’s control. All proceedings will be recorded through audiovisual recording. That recording will be made available to the parties for inspection and review.

Prior to obtaining access to any evidence, the parties and their Advisors must sign an agreement not to disseminate any of the testimony heard or evidence obtained in the hearing or use such testimony or evidence for any purpose unrelated to the Title IX Grievance Process. Once signed, this Agreement may not be withdrawn.

The parties shall be subject to the University’s Rules of Decorum [Link to Rules of Decorum].

The Hearing Officer or Panel shall not draw inferences regarding a party or witness’ credibility based on the party or witness’ status as a Complainant, Respondent, or witness, nor shall it base its judgments in stereotypes about how a party or witness would or should act under the circumstances.

2. Continuances or Granting Extensions

The University may determine that multiple sessions or a continuance (i.e., a pause on the continuation of the hearing until a later date or time) is needed to complete a hearing. If so, the University will notify all participants and endeavor to accommodate all participants’ schedules and complete the hearing as promptly as practicable.

3. Participants in the live hearing
Live hearings are not public, and the only individuals permitted to participate in the hearing are as follows:
   a) Complainant and Respondent (The Parties);
   b) The parties Advisors of Choice, if any; and
      (1) The parties have the right to select an Advisor of their choice, who may be, but does not have to be, an attorney.
      (2) The Advisor of choice may accompany the parties to any meeting or hearing they are permitted to attend, but may not speak for the party.
      (3) The parties may select an Advisor who may accompany the parties to any meeting or hearing they are permitted to attend, but may not speak for the party.
      (4) The Advisor is not prohibited from being a witness in the matter.
   c) The Hearing Officer or Panel
      The Hearing Officer or Panel may be comprised of internal or external members. All members are trained in the adjudication process for offenses under this Policy. The Hearing Officer or Panel are selected by the Title IX Coordinator. The Hearing Officer or Panel will review all relevant material and determine, using the “preponderance of the evidence” standard, whether Respondent committed the alleged Prohibited Conduct.
      (1) One to three Hearing Officer (s) may preside over the hearings.
      (2) No Hearing Officer will also have served as the Title IX Coordinator, Title IX Investigator, or Advisor to any party in the case, nor may any member of the hearing body serve on the appeals body in the case.
      (3) No Hearing Officer will have a conflict of interest or bias in favor of or against Complainants or Respondents generally or in favor of or against the parties to the particular case.
      (4) The parties will have an opportunity to raise any objections regarding a Hearing Officer’s actual or perceived conflicts of interest or bias at the commencement of the live hearing.
   d) Witnesses
      Witnesses cannot be compelled to participate in the live hearing, and have the right not to participate in the hearing free from retaliation.

4. Notice of Hearing
The Hearing Officer or Panel will send a Notice of Hearing to the Parties at least seven (7) calendar days before the scheduled hearing date. Accelerated hearing dates may be scheduled with the consent of the Parties, Chair, and Hearing Officer or Panel. The Notice once sent, is presumed to have been delivered.

The Notice will contain:
   a) a list of the policies alleged to have been violated,
   b) a summary of the hearing procedures,
   c) a list of potential sanctions,
   d) the date, time, and location of the hearing,
   e) a notice that the hearing will commence in the absence of the parties, and
   f) additional information at the Chair’s discretion.
5. Hearing Procedures

For all live hearings conducted under this Process, the procedure will be as follows:

a) The Hearing Officer or Panel Chair will open and establish rules and expectations for the hearing;

b) The Parties will each be given the opportunity to provide opening statements;

c) The Hearing Officer or Panel will ask questions of the Parties and Witnesses;

d) The Hearing Officer or Panel shall determine by majority vote whether the Responding Party shall be found responsible for the alleged Prohibited Conduct;

e) The Review Panel determination shall be based on the “preponderance of the evidence” standard.

The Hearing Officer or Panel will afford the highest weight relative to other testimony to first-hand testimony by parties and witnesses regarding their own memory of specific facts that occurred. Where a party or witness’ conduct or statements demonstrate that the party or witness is engaging in retaliatory conduct, including but not limited to witness tampering and intimidation, the Hearing Officer or Panel may draw an adverse inference as to that party or witness’ credibility.

6. Review of Recording

The recording of the hearing will be available for review, upon request, by the parties within five (5) calendar days, unless there are any extenuating circumstances.

7. The Determination Regarding Responsibility

Determinations regarding responsibility may be based in part, or entirely, on documentary, audiovisual, and digital evidence, as warranted in the reasoned judgment of the Hearing Officer or Panel.

The written Determination Regarding Responsibility will be issued simultaneously to all parties and the Title IX Coordinator through their University email account, or other reasonable means as necessary. The Determination will include:

a) Identification of the allegations;

b) A description of the procedural steps taken from the receipt of the Formal Complaint through the determination, including any notifications to the parties, interviews with parties and witnesses, site visits, methods used to gather other evidence, and hearings held;

c) Findings of fact supporting the determination;

d) Conclusions regarding which section of the Policy, if any, the Respondent has or has not violated.

e) For each allegation:

(1) A statement of, and rationale for, a determination regarding responsibility;

(2) A statement of, and rationale for, any disciplinary sanctions the University imposes on the Respondent; and

(3) A statement of, and rationale for, whether remedies designed to restore or preserve equal access to the University’s education program or activity will be provided by the University to the Complainant; and

f) The University’s procedures and the permitted reasons for the Complainant and Respondent to appeal (described below in “Appeals”).
J. Sanctions

1. Possible Student Sanctions
   - Expulsion – Permanent separation from the University.
   - Suspension – Separation from the University for up to two years.
   - Deferred Suspension – Separation from the University held in abeyance for a definite period, to be enforced if future misconduct.
   - Residence Hall Separation or Relocation – The student may be barred from the residence halls or a specific residence hall, for a definite period.
   - Restitution – Compensation for loss, damage, or injury. This may take the form of appropriate service and/or monetary or material replacement.
   - Written reprimand—a written censure for violation of Policy placed in the student’s record.
   - Written warning – a written warning placed in student’s file what repetition of conduct found wrongful will result in disciplinary action.

In determining the appropriate sanctions, the Hearing Officer or Panel shall be guided by several considerations, including:
   - The severity and persistence of the Prohibited Conduct;
   - The extent violence was involved;
   - The Conduct’s impact on the Victim;
   - The Conduct’s impact on the Campus community;
   - Prior disciplinary history or other prior misconduct;
   - Whether Responding Party accepted responsibility; and
   - Any other mitigating or aggravating factors.

2. Possible Employee Sanctions
   - Termination;
   - Suspension without pay;
   - Probationary period;
   - Written or verbal reprimand; and
   - Administrative referral to EAP.

3. Failure to Complete Sanctions or to Comply with Remedies
   All Respondents are expected to comply with conduct sanctions, responsive actions, and corrective actions within the timeframe specified by the Title IX Coordinator.

   Failure to abide by the sanction(s) or action(s) imposed by the date specified, whether by refusal, neglect, or any other reason, may result in additional sanction(s), including suspension, expulsion, or termination from the University and may be noted on a student’s official transcript.

   A suspension will only be lifted when compliance is achieved to the satisfaction of the Title IX Coordinator.

K. Withdrawal or Resignation During the Grievance Process

Students: The University may place a hold, bar access to an official transcript, and/or prohibit graduation as necessary to permit the resolution process to be completed.

Employees: Should an employee resign with unresolved allegations pending, the records of the Title IX Coordinator will reflect that status.
L. Appeals

Parties may appeal a determination regarding responsibility. A party must submit their written appeal within five (5) calendar days of being notified of the decision, indicating the grounds for the appeal.

The grounds for appeal available are as follows:

1. To consider new information, sufficient to alter a decision or relevant facts not brought out in the original hearing, because such information and/or facts were not known to the person appealing at the time of the hearing;
2. An error in the process or an abridgment of rights, as stated in this Policy, which materially impacted the outcome of the hearing;
3. The sanctions imposed were impermissible under this Policy.

If a party appeals, the University will notify the other party in writing of the appeal as soon as practicable. The time for an appeal shall be offered equitably to all parties and shall not be extended for any party solely because the other party filed an appeal.

Appeals may be no longer than three (3) pages (including attachments). Appeals should be submitted in electronic form using Arial or Times New Roman Fonts, 12-point font size, and should be single-spaced. Appeals should use footnotes, not endnotes. Appeals that do not meet these standards may be returned to the party for correction, but the time for appeal will not be extended unless there is evidence that technical malfunction caused the appeal document not to meet these standards.

Appeals will be decided by Appeals Officers as follows:

- If the Respondent is a student: the Dean of Students, or their designee.
- If the Respondent is a faculty or staff member: The Provost, or their designee.

Appeals Officers will be free of conflict of interest and bias, and will not have served as Investigator, Title IX Coordinator, or Hearing Officer in the same matter. The outcome of the appeal will be provided in writing simultaneously to both parties, and include the rationale for the decision. Once an appeal is decided, the outcome is final.

Decisions by the Appeals Officer are to be deferential to the original decision. Changes to the finding should only be made when there is a clear error, and the sanction(s) should only be altered if there is a compelling justification to do so.

Appeals are not intended to be full re-hearings (de novo) of the allegation(s). In most cases, appeals are confined to a review of the written documentation or record of the investigation and pertinent documentation regarding the grounds for appeal.

Appeals granted based on new evidence should normally be remanded to the Investigator(s) for reconsideration. Other appeals should be remanded at the discretion of the Appeals Officer.

In cases in which the appeal results in Respondent’s reinstatement to the University or a resumption of privileges, all reasonable attempts will be made to restore the Respondent to their prior status, recognizing that some opportunities lost may be irreparable in the short term.

M. Record-keeping

In implementing this policy, records of all allegations, investigations, resolutions, and hearings will be kept for a minimum of seven (7) years, or as required by state or federal law or University policy, by the Title IX Coordinator in the Title IX case database.
N. Disabilities Accommodation in the Resolution Process
The University is committed to providing reasonable accommodations and support to qualified students, employees, or others with disabilities to ensure equal access to the resolution process at the University. Students needing such accommodations or support should contact the Director of Disability Services, and Employees needing such accommodations or support should contact the ADA/504 Coordinator. The Director of Student Accessibility Services and the ADA/504 Coordinator will review the request and, in consultation with the person requesting the accommodation and the Title IX Coordinator, determine which accommodations are appropriate and necessary for full participation in the process.

O. Revision
These policies and procedures will be reviewed and updated annually by the Title IX Coordinator. The University reserves the right to make changes to this document as necessary. The Policy takes effect when it is posted on the University’s website.

The Title IX Coordinator may make minor modifications to the procedures that fall within this process as necessary. The Title IX Coordinator may also vary procedures materially with notice (on the University website, with the appropriate effective date identified) upon determining that changes to law or regulation require such alterations.

RULES OF DECORUM FOR HEARINGS IN THE TITLE IX AND DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, SEXUAL MISCONDUCT, AND RETALIATION GRIEVANCE PROCESSES
1. The Hearing Officer or the Hearing Panel Chair will ask questions at the beginning of the Hearing.
2. The Advisor will direct each question to the Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel first and wait for a relevance determination before directing the question to the Party(ies) and Witness(es).
3. Questions asked and answered with be deemed irrelevant.
4. The Hearing Officer’s or Hearing Panel Chair’s ruling shall be final and all hearing participants shall abide thereby.
5. Rules of common courtesy and decency shall be observed at all times.
6. An Advisor may request clarification of hearing procedures at any time by addressing the Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel Chair’ after recognition.
CARE TEAM

The University of Bridgeport CARE Team is a group of campus professionals appointed by the President. The CARE Team is chaired by the Dean of Students with representatives from athletics, counseling services, health services, Title IX coordinator/deputy coordinator, campus security, residential life and academic affairs. The CARE team will meet regularly to support students via an established protocol and will serve as a proactive, centralized, caring and coordinated intervention for students in need prior to a crisis.

In accordance with Conn. Gen. Stat. § 10a-156a(b), University of Bridgeport President appointed the following members: Dean of Students (serving as Chair), Assistant Director of Human Resources, Assistant Professor, Associate Director of Campus Security, Director of Student Health Services, Director of Human Resources, Director of Housing and Residential Life, Executive Director of Campus Security, Director of the Academic Advising Center and Program Assessment Coordinator & Undergraduate Academic Advisor.

Additional staff and faculty will be invited to CARE meetings when their role pertains to a specific situation (i.e. academic advisor, supervisor, etc.)

Many of the above CARE members are counseling and/or student services professionals who have extensive training or experience evaluating and working with students at-risk. Training for CARE Team members is ongoing and will continue during the academic year.

DRUG AND ALCOHOL POLICY

The University of Bridgeport’s drug and alcohol policies prohibit the unlawful possession, use, sale, or distribution of alcohol and controlled substances/illicit drugs by students, faculty, and staff. All members of the University of Bridgeport community are expected to fulfill their obligations and responsibilities pursuant to institutional policy and federal, state, and local laws. Any disciplinary action imposed by the University may be in addition to penalties imposed by an off campus authority. Students and employees are subject to prosecution under applicable local, state, or federal laws. All students receive a hard copy of the University of Bridgeport Key to UB Student Handbook which clearly states alcohol and other illicit drug policies, sanctions, resource/referral information, campus and community support services and a description of health-risks associated with such use. The Key to UB is also available on-line at https://www.bridgeport.edu/key-to-ub to the entire campus community.

Connecticut State law prohibits the possession of alcohol by persons under the age of 21 on public or private property, including within University residence halls.

Alcohol and substance abuse education is provided to all student-athletes every year. Additionally, all residential life staff receives training and education on alcohol and substance abuse education as well as on local resource services and how to make appropriate referrals. On-going educational workshops such as the health fair and alcohol awareness programs regarding this topic are offered for both residential students and commuters at numerous times throughout the academic year. Mandatory and optional educational programs are held before students begin taking classes on campus as well as throughout the year in and outside of residence halls and classrooms.

The Division of Student Affairs conducts an annual review of our alcohol and illicit drug policies.
POLICY ON GUNS, REPLICA S OF GUNS, AND OTHER WEAPONS FOR STUDENTS

The University of Bridgeport is committed to providing its students, faculty and staff with a safe and healthy learning, living and working environment. The possession or use of guns and/or other weapons or replicas of such weapons, or objects which might reasonably be mistaken for weapons, is contrary to this commitment and the spirit of an academic community where free expression, civil disagreement and debate are encouraged. Therefore, the possession or use by students of guns, replicas of guns and/or other weapons, or objects which might reasonably be mistaken for weapons, whether or not the object is loaded with live ammunition, capable of being fired, or when operable capable of administering deadly force, is absolutely prohibited in all University facilities and all University owned, rented, or leased property. Students found to be in violation of this policy will be subject to sanctions including immediate suspension from the University. Students who have knowledge of guns or other weapons on campus, or who know of individuals who have threatened to use a weapon, should immediately report this information to any of the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Campus Security</th>
<th>203-576-4911</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Dean of Students</td>
<td>203-576-4393</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Office of Housing and Residential Life</td>
<td>203-576-4228</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

This prohibition against weapons applies equally to those carried by persons with a government issued permit or license. The only exceptions are listed below:

- University security staff authorized to carry weapons
- Local, state and federal law enforcement officers
- Members of the United States armed forces while on duty
- There may be activities related to the educational mission of the University (e.g., theatrical productions) that appear to violate the letter, but not the intent of this policy, by using weapon replica(s). In such cases the department or organization coordinating the activity is responsible for notifying the Office of Campus Security or the COO prior to the event.
- Weapons and replicas in violation of this policy are subject to summary confiscation by University staff or security personnel. Any person who is in violation of this policy is subject to referral to governmental authorities for legal sanctions in addition to any disciplinary actions the University may take.

WEAPON-FREE WORKPLACE FOR EMPLOYEES

To ensure that UB is an environment safe and free of violence for all students, employees, contractors, and visitors, the University prohibits the possession or use of weapons on or off University property. A license to carry a weapon, regardless of Connecticut law, does not supersede this University policy.

Any employee in violation of this policy will be subject to prompt disciplinary action, up to and including termination. All employees are subject to this provision, including contract and temporary employees. It is the University’s policy that no employee, student, visitor, guest, contractor or subcontractor on the University of Bridgeport property shall carry or possess any weapon or any item intended to appear as a weapon (“prohibited weapons”) on or about his or her person whether visible or concealed, in or on the University of Bridgeport owned or leased grounds, parking areas, buildings structures or other property.

“University property” is defined as all University-owned or leased buildings and surrounding areas such as sidewalks, walkways, driveways and parking lots under the University’s ownership or control. This policy applies to all University-owned or leased vehicles and all vehicles that come onto University property.

“Dangerous weapons” include, but are not limited to, firearms, explosives, knives, and ammunition. The term "prohibited weapon" shall not however include "mace" or any similar non-lethal noxious substance, liquid, or spray when carried by any person for his or her protection or for the protection of others. The malicious use of other items not intended as weapons is also prohibited.
UB reserves the right at any time and at its discretion to search all vehicles, packages, containers, briefcases, purses, lockers, desks, enclosures and persons entering its property for the purpose of determining whether any weapon has been brought onto its property or premises in violation of this policy. Employees who fail or refuse to promptly permit a search under this policy will be subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

Any employee who believes that another person possesses a concealed weapon or is behaving in a threatening manner has an obligation to report this immediately to the Campus Security Department. Failure to report knowledge of the presence of any dangerous weapon shall subject the employee to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Under no circumstances should any employee take any unnecessary risks or compromise his or her safety in enforcing this policy. The Security Department and local law enforcement should be contacted as necessary.

APPLICATION TO THE UNIVERSITY’S DEPARTMENT OF SECURITY
Campus security supervisors who are authorized to carry firearms on University property in an official capacity and in the performance of their duties are exempt from the provisions of this policy.

APPLICATION TO LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS
Law enforcement officers carrying firearms that are on University property in an official capacity and in the performance of their duties are exempt from the provisions of this policy.

Law enforcement officers meeting the criteria of State of Connecticut General Laws who are off-duty shall be permitted to possess a firearm while attending classes, meetings, or seminars on University owned or leased property only if they have given advance written notice to the UB Executive Director of Security. Such notice shall include identification of the type, caliber and serial number of the firearm, and a listing of the date or dates when such firearm shall be carried or possessed on University owned or leased property.

VIOLATION OF WEAPON-FREE POLICY
Any employee determined to have violated this weapon-free policy shall be subject to appropriate University disciplinary sanctions including immediate termination and may be barred from entering University property. The University also reserves the right to refer any violations of this policy to appropriate law enforcement agencies to investigate for possible violation of state and federal laws.

SECURITY OF AND ACCESS TO CAMPUS FACILITIES
Access to campus buildings and grounds is a privilege extended to students, faculty, staff, and guests. The University encourages an open environment, with limitations, to assure adequate protection of all members of the University community. Except for residence halls, most campus facilities are normally open when classes are in session or by special arrangements with the building manager, Special Events, or Campus Security. The general public can attend cultural and recreational events on campus, with access limited to facilities in which the events are held. Authorization for use of campus grounds for assembly purposes must be obtained in advance from the Special Events Office and Campus Security. At night and during times when the campus is officially closed, University buildings are locked. Faculty, staff, and students with proper authorization are permitted into such buildings.

The Office of Housing and Residential Life controls access to all residence halls 24 hours a day through an electronic card access system. Students gain access to their residence halls by using their proximity cards at the entrance of each hall. Guest Relations Associates and Security Officers provide additional support at the front desks of Barnum, Chaffee, Cooper, Seeley and University halls during high traffic times. ID cards are non-transferable and may not be used by any other person for any other purpose. Individuals who suspect their ID cards may have been lost or stolen should contact Campus Security immediately. The University will prosecute any unauthorized person who trespasses or loiters on University property.

Proper lighting and building security are critical factors in the reduction of crime on campus. The Facilities Department maintains buildings and grounds with a concern for safety and security. Inspections of campus facilities are conducted on a regular basis and repairs are made as quickly as possible. During the academic year, the Directors of Facilities Management, Housing and Residence Life, Campus Safety, and Maintenance meet weekly to discuss issues of pressing concern. All members of the campus community are encouraged to report safety and security hazards to the Facilities Department or Campus Security.

GUEST POLICY AND OVERNIGHT GUESTS

GUEST POLICY

Definitions:
• A visitor is a University of Bridgeport student who lives in a UB residence hall other than the one being visited.
• A guest is a student of the University of Bridgeport who lives off campus OR a person who is not a current student of the University of Bridgeport.
• An overnight guest is any off-campus guest (either a UB student who lives off-campus or a person who is not a UB student) who will be remaining in the hall after midnight.

General Policies
1. Upon entering the hall, a visitor/guest must leave a valid picture ID. Any visitor/guest without valid photo ID will not be allowed to enter the residence hall. The only forms of valid ID accepted from a visitor/guest for visiting residence halls are:
   - A current state issued driver’s license or identification card including a photo,
   - A current passport,
   - A current military ID, or
   - A current, valid University of Bridgeport ID.
2. Residential visitors must always present a valid UB ID. A UB ID is not considered valid unless a residential sticker (provided each semester by Campus Security) is on the ID.
3. Each resident host is permitted to sign-in no more than two (2) guests/visitors at any one time.
4. Each resident host may have only one (1) overnight guest at a time.
5. A resident host is responsible for the escort and conduct of a visitor/guest during the entire visit and any situations or damages they may cause.
6. Before inviting any visitor/guest to your room, be considerate of your roommate and discuss it with them. For overnight guests, if any roommate does not consent, you cannot have a guest stay in your room.

Visitor Policies – DUE TO COVID-19 VISITATION HOURS WILL BE LIMITED. NO OVERNIGHTS.
1. The resident host, in person, must sign a visitor in and out of the residence hall at the front desk every time they enter and leave the residence hall.
2. The status of all visitors living on campus will be verified prior to being admitted into the residence hall as a visitor. They are not required to officially sign in as an overnight guest; however, they are not allowed to stay overnight as a visitor more than two (2) days in a week. A week is defined as Sunday – Saturday.
3. In addition to any authorized overnight guest, a resident host can also have one (1) on-campus visitor visit at any time. If the resident host does not have any authorized guests, the resident host can then have two (2) visitors that reside on campus visit at any time.
4. All double occupancy rooms will be required to complete a roommate agreement form at the start of the semester in accordance with the new COVID-19 guidelines and procedures that the university will be following.

Guest Policies – DUE TO COVID-19 NO GUESTS WILL BE ALLOWED.
1. A guest must be signed into the residence hall, using one of the valid forms of ID listed above, at the front desk every time they enter and leave the building.
2. A resident host who wishes to have a guest (either a UB student who lives off campus or individuals who are not UB students) stay past midnight (12:00am) needs to submit an Overnight Guest Request Form online through the MyUB portal using their personal UB credentials prior to the arrival of the guest.
3. Guests who leave before midnight (12:00am) do not need to be registered using the online system.
4. If a guest unexpectedly will not be leaving before midnight, the resident host must register them using the online system before midnight AND check in with the in-hall duty staff to explain the change in plans.
5. Violating these policies will subject the host to loss of guest privileges and possible Student Conduct action.

Overnight guest restrictions: DUE TO COVID-19 NO OVERNIGHT GUESTS WILL BE ALLOWED.

1. A resident may have no more than one (1) overnight guest at a time.
2. A guest may only stay up to two (2) times per week in the residence halls. The week is defined as Sunday-Saturday. Specifically, this means that within any seven-day period, a guest may only stay for two nights within the residence hall system as anyone's overnight guest.
3. If the guest (either an off-campus student or non-student) is staying more than one night in the week, the resident must include the request for each night of the stay on the online form.
4. If a student is expecting a guest for more than a two day period, they must obtain special permission in advance from their roommate and the building’s RLC, the DRL, or the EDRL. The host and guest must get special permission from the RLC of that building and the DRL or EDRL before spending another night in any residence hall on campus.
5. If a guest stays more than two nights in a seven day period (Sunday – Saturday) without permission, the resident host will be billed $26.00 per night and may face Student Conduct action. Repeat offense(s) may result in arrest for trespassing and the student's guest privileges will be revoked for the remainder of the school year.
6. The University, at its discretion, reserves the right to limit the number of overnight guests in any residence hall or on campus. Residential Life professional staff and Campus Security supervisors reserve the right to deny any individual access to the residence hall including revoking previously approved overnight guests and regular guests/visitors.
7. During 24-hr Quiet Hours periods at the end of each semester, overnight guest privileges are suspended in order to promote an environment focused on maximizing residents' academic success.

Other limitations on overnight guest policies may be put in place at specific times such as break periods, grad week, commencement, and emergencies; or to respond to issues within the section, hall, or campus. The University will make every attempt to notify residents of such policy adjustments in a timely manner.

PROGRAMS FOR SECURITY OF ACCESS INTO RESIDENCE HALLS

Informative programs related to the guest policies are conducted in the manner of:

- Floor meetings every semester
- Published in the Key to UB (annually reviewed)
- Published online on website (annually reviewed)
- Signage throughout halls
- Stated in the welcome home guide to living on campus (annually reviewed and distributed every Fall semester)
NOTIFICATION OF DISTRIBUTION OF SECURITY PROTOCOL PLAN AND ANNUAL SECURITY REPORT

SECURITY PROTOCOL PLAN
University of Bridgeport will provide the Security Protocol Plan to new applicants, new employees, and all existing students and employees annually. New applicants will receive this plan from the Office of Admission who will distribute via email to all applicants to the University after they have submitted their application. A link to the Security Protocol Plan will be included in an email thanking the students for their application, informing them of the Security Protocol Plan, and encouraging them to click on the link to view the plan. The email will be sent to applicants by an automated email that will be triggered to send once the student submits their application. The link is: http://www.bridgeport.edu/docs/Security/Security_Protocol_Plan.pdf

New employees are given a document during the new hire orientation notifying them of this plan and directing them to the electronic address (URL) below to obtain the report via the portal at: http://www.bridgeport.edu/docs/Security/Security_Protocol_Plan.pdf

Notification of the publication of the Security Protocol Plan is sent to current students and employees by electronic mail with hyperlinks to the report on the University’s Web site and through a posting on the myUB portal. The electronic address (URL) to obtain the report through the portal is: http://www.bridgeport.edu/docs/Security/Security_Protocol_Plan.pdf

ANNUAL SECURITY REPORT
By October 1st of each year, notification of the publication of the Annual Security Report is sent to students by electronic mail and through a posting on the myUB portal, and to employees through new hire orientation, and by electronic mail with hyperlinks to the report on the University’s Web site.

The electronic address (URL) to obtain the report through the University’s website is: http://www.bridgeport.edu/docs/Security/Annual_Security_Report.pdf

The link to obtain the report via the portal is: http://www.bridgeport.edu/docs/Security/Annual_Security_Report.pdf
